FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (AND ANSWERS)

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE CITYWIDE BID PROGRAM?

A large amount of information regarding BIDs in the City of Los Angeles may be examined including reference materials, City council actions, BID reports and newsletters and information videotapes. The city council directed the Office of the City Clerk to serve as the primary agency regarding the BID Program. The City Clerk's Administrative Services Division, through its Special Assessments Unit, manages the Program and provides various type of assistance and information to interested parties.

The City Clerk's Administrative Services Division is located at:
200 N. Spring Street, Room 224, Los Angeles, CA 90012.
Voice (213) 978-1099, Fax (213) 978-1130
TDD/TTY (213) 978-1132

In addition, program and activity information regarding a number of operating BIDs can be obtained by linking from the City's BID site directly to the BID Website. For site locations, go to the appropriate area on the City site ("BIDLINKS") and click on the BID you would like to visit. General information about BID nationally may be obtained from the International Downtown Association, the National League of Cities and the Urban Land Institute; all are headquartered in Washington, D.C.
