To whom it may concern,

I am writing to share my concerns about the faul and hateful language thats been used at Council meetings. This type of behavior disrupts and waste time that could be spent addressing the issues we care about.

I urge you to take action so the community and their imput is respected.

Soila R, CD7, 91342