I am a second generation South Robertson neighborhood resident. I attended the local schools as a child. My friends and family all live in this neighborhood. I've been fortunate enough to work, and earn a living in this neighborhood. As such, I feel a deep connection to this neighborhood, and want to give back to the neighborhood that has served me so well.

My 4 year old son will soon be attending Castle Heights Elementary. So my life in Soro has come full circle. My belief is that it's important to strengthen involvement in our local businesses, schools, and overall community.

As candidate for office, I bring 30 years of local connections, community insight and a strong background in business.

Thank you for your consideration.

Ben Bellet
