I have been privileged to have served as a board member this past year. I volunteered at the communications committee, where I helped to bring awareness to MCW. We worked hard to let our community know that their voices can be heard and by making it possible. I would like the opportunity to continue being a member. Besides owning Mosci Boutique; I work on a regular basis with the media, decision makers, consulate events, and business promotion and development amongst countries.

I would like to continue devoting my time to help promote community safety, to improve conditions for local businesses, and to help seniors and minorities to have their voices heard.

I realize how important communication is in breaking barriers of conflict. Good communication is essential to bring about positive and beneficial results to all parties involved

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
