Candidate Statement Jan H. Subar

I come to GHNNC with much experience in organizations, community service, and community advocacy. I am a Clinical Nurse Specialist/Educator. I am a member of the Devonshire Division Neighborhood Watch programs for over 26 years, having served as chairperson in Canoga Park and Granada Hills. I have served on many Council District 12 Committees. I am a past President (and current Vice President) of my Homeowners Association. In the early 90's I was a primary force in successfully fighting commercial development in my residential community. I serve on the Bradley University (Peoria, Illinois) National Alumni Board of Directors.

As a member of the GHNNC I serve on the Planning and Land Use and Outreach committees. I hope to continue serving my community on both, and adding other committees appropriate to my experience. I feel that GHNNC is our community's important voice to City Hall. Let's be counted!
