As General Manager of Beverly Center I am fortunate to manage and lead 100 employees as well as provide both the staff and infrastructure to support over 100 thriving businesses in Los Angeles. More than 5,000 people are employed within Beverly Center's walls and over 200,000 vehicles pass by Beverly Center's three exterior boulevards every day.

I feel passionate about my candidacy for the MCWCC because not only do I believe that Beverly Center has a civic and philanthropic responsibility to be a supportive and charitable member of our community, but I know and love this area, having lived and worked here for years.

As an experienced executive, I have managed businesses in Los Angeles in a variety of capacities in industries including Entertainment and Advertising. I feel that it is this professional wisdom and well-rounded executive level experience that best qualifies me for participation in the MCWCC.
