As a South Robertson resident for 7 years, I believe our neighborhood shows an intriguing future. We pride ourselves with a diverse community, yet face many shared challenges. My number one priority is to ensure safety in our neighborhood, especially for all our children. We must work together to organize ways to stop graffiti "tagging", keep gangs and crime out of our community, and keep our neighborhood clean and beautiful.

I will act as a conduit to LA City Council, improve communications with neighbors (resolving issues and problems promptly), and help residents navigate city government. I would like to expand on our successful annual festival and coordinate social activities throughout the year.

I have a creative plan to promote our SORO Business District and to address the many issues of our business owners that often get ignored. I want to help SORO stay great, and become even better.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
