I am excited to be a candidate for Mid City West Community Council, I believe that in the greatness in our part of Los Angeles, and have happily lived here with my wife and two boys for five years. It is my goal to improve it, from increasing our safety, decreasing the traffic and improving the living and working conditions for all residents and businesses in the area. They say all politics are local; this is as local as it gets and affects our daily lives. Making that daily life better for everyone is the change I want to bring and I look forward to the attacking the challenges that face us in this neighborhood for a greater Los Angeles.
