Being a transplant from Illinois, I didn't think I'd be able to find a community in Los Angeles that offered the values and sense of community like the one I grew up in. That was until I moved to South Robertson in 2008. Upon moving in, I was immediately greeted with open arms from fellow neighbors who have now grown into friends. It was then I knew I had found the best kept secret in L.A. neighborhoods and, from that point forward, I've wanted to get involved to help ensure our community maintains that same appeal. With a focus on safety, community, and economic development, I will fight to make our voice heard to local government. As a Vice President of Finance and Accounting, I understand the importance of trust, integrity, and business and I want to infuse those qualities into South Robertson to make our neighborhood even better.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
