I am running for reelection to the Mid City West Community Council Board to continue to support my community.

As a member of the Communications and Outreach Committee, I have worked extensively on the midcitywest.org website. I was the lead person on creating the website election campaign. I was also on the Ad Hoc Election Outreach Committee towards creating other parts of that project. And I have been a part of developing printed materials for Mid City West.

I work with other community organizations, such as Melrose Action Neighborhood Watch. I am active politically in many ways, including working with elected officials at the state and local level. I was on the West Hollywood staff for 16 years and bring that experience to government activities as well as coordinating with our neighbor, the City of West Hollywood.

I ask for your support to continue what I can do for you.
