I am running for the WHNC because I want to be a voice that fairly and honestly represents the stakeholders of West Hills.

I believe that the WHNC should assure that our concerns be presented to appropriate officials, or agencies, based upon full and fair discussions at Council meetings.

I am a firm believer in the following:

- Each stakeholder should be allowed to voice their opinions, appropriately, at Council meetings
- All voices should be treated equally at Council meetings
- All Council rules should be enforced equally and fairly, for all, at Council meetings
- Council agendas should be followed, including time limits

My qualifications:

- Active on three WHNC committees
- Active voice, Corporate Pointe Project
- Block Captain, West Hills (North) Neighborhood Watch, 10 years
- Completed Community Police Academy, 2009
- LAUSD - 34 years as teacher and administrator
- Resident of West Hills, 15 years
