Candidate Statement

FTDNC board members all strive to preserve the semi-rural environment of Shadow Hills, Lake View Terrace and La Tuna Canyon.

Marc, my husband, and I own Peacock Hill Ranch in Shadow Hills, a horse boarding and rescue facility, where we also live.

Not surprisingly, my focus centers squarely on the status of FTDNC communities for horse keeping, horse people and those who enjoy the ambience of at least semi-rural living.

My personal objective as an FTDNC board member has been to help discourage any who would change the footprint of these communities, using asphalt, postage stamp parcels and/or high density housing in horse communities.

FTDNC needs equestrian land use advocates. That's me, by profession, vocation and avocation and the work, although volunteer, is still gratifying so I want to serve another term.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
