I am presently a Board Member of MCWCC.

I am a retired Architect and a docent at LACMA. We have owned a home in this neighborhood for 22 years, where my wife Sherry Rothschild is a Real Estate agent and we have raised our 4 children.

As a member of the Land Planning Committee I have fought for less density, smaller developments, more aesthetically pleasing building design complimentary to existing design criteria, contributions for public use consideration including landscaping, bicycle racks, traffic and parking, buffering of existing buildings and overall improved planning and construction.

As a member of the Arts and Recreation Committee I have been an active part of the periodic Art Walks. I am also the liaison for Recreation Facilities working closely with Pan Pacific Park.

As an energetic and focused member of this community I would be proud to continue serving our neighborhood.
