I have served on the Granada Hills North Neighborhood Council since August 2008, holding the officer's position of Treasurer since 2009.

In 2009, as chairperson of the Policy & Rules Committee, I worked with Stakeholders, Board Members, the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment, and The Board of Neighborhood Commissioners to update the GHNNC Bylaws, which included an important revision that extended our boundaries to the western edge of Aliso Canyon.

I have also presided over revisions to the GHNNC Standing Rules (formerly "Policies & Guidelines"), which the Board adopted.

If elected to a full term as District Three Representative, I look forward to continuing my service to the community by advocating for policies that help the community and speaking against proposals that would negatively impact the Council's fiscal position.

Your vote for my candidacy will assure a proactive, deliberative voice for you and our community will remain on the Board.
