My name is Leon Marzillier and I am a candidate for Director on the Granada Hills North Neighborhood Council Board, a position I have held since 2006. I have also served in two officer positions, first as Recording Secretary and presently as President of the Board, having held the latter position since 2007. I am a retired mathematics professor, having taught at Los Angeles Valley College for 36 years. I have lived in Granada Hills since 1983, raised two children here, and live on Midwood Drive in the Knollwood area with my wife. I believe Granada Hills is one of the most attractive and safest areas in Los Angeles, and I would like to see that it stays that way. Please cast your vote for me, and I will continue to work to make Granada Hills THE place to live in the San Fernando Valley.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
