I am the Community Relations & Municipal Services Manager for Sunshine Canyon Landfill, a Republic Services Company.

District One is a geographic boundary as described in Article 5 of the GHNNC Bylaws and falls in direct proximity of the Sunshine Canyon Landfill.

As a company representative, I have several goals to assist in improving the reputation, communications, and overall relations between the neighborhood council and our company. For the more than a year, I have served as the District One Representative for the GHNNC and I believe there has been some progress in achieving the above goals.
