I am an attorney and resident of Lake Balboa for 9 years now and a member of the LBNC for the past three years. I have grown to care very much about our community and have sought ways to contribute to its beautification and safety. I attend Council meetings and participate in the discussion and voting on important community issues. In response to concerns about the loitering of Birmingham HS students, I did the research, contacted the Principal and spearheaded the effort to provide the students with an additional seating area when are dropped off or picked up from school. As a result, the HS has beautiful permanent metal benches and trash bins in place for the students. This is an example of how I will continue to serve you-by listening to you, figuring out how best to resolve your concerns, and taking the action necessary to make it happen.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
