Comments for Public Posting: This question is directed to district four representative Nithya Raman My name is Joni Fullard I am being targeted harass facing constant intimidation and retaliation by both the lapd and lafd over a false allegation of me being a disgruntled. at a past employer. This case was never correctly investigated and I was never given the chance defend my character against these allegations. I would I like to know If the City of Los Angeles has any plans to confront this? The Lapd is out of control. How is it possible for elective representatives to sit back watch and do nothing about it? Also does the city has plan on reinstating City Council meetings in person?
