Comments for Public Posting: The Mayor said. Similarly, L.A. Mayor Karen Bass promised to ease rebuilding efforts by "turning away from the usual city system." "We are going to clear the red tape and unnecessary delays, cost and headaches that people experience in ordinary times so that we can rebuild your homes quickly," she said at a briefing on Thursday. "We're going to clear the way to rapidly rebuild our neighborhood infrastructure — which means roads, sidewalks, streetlights and utilities. We will clear the way to rebuild and open our small businesses and provide assistance to make it through." If these are Unnecessary delay. cost and headaches. why are they in place in ordinary times?

Comments for Public Posting: Sick of the treatment as the public to wait for the meetings to begin- someone has the data out there- How many times has the LA City Council STARTED the meetings ON TIME? When holding press conferences, we the people, the Pueblo, grant LA City Council Reps one minute - on the mic.... By their definition, that's public engagement!!! SO BE IT!!! The fire apocalypse revealed just how out of touch CD Reps are - (minus 3-4 members,) 2 who just joined must heavy lift and teach the others best practices and behaviors!!!! There are another two who are forgetting their raices... flip flop - good not good - keeping us all guessing how they're going to vote. This fire and winds of change is supposed to humble our hearts and help us recognize each other as community, neighbors, friends and yes, relatives!!! Perhaps there are neighbors in the burned areas who do not remember their humanity - and are so very stuck in fear and material loss that they cannot process human kindness... they are ALIVE! That is the blessing!!! Human kindness is not a selfie for social media and likes. Human kindness is not showing up to volunteer and bringing your classist, elitist, racist bs with you... show up as a good hearted individual with no hidden agenda, show up to be part of the healing circle... or don't. Don't show up. CD11 Reps upper crusty constituents who shared they need airbnbs and yes, clothing donated must be new. WTF? Yes we know to donate new under garments - not used - seriously! This new clothing donation request - separates you from the rest of the city.... Not impressed with your delusions of grandeur... and lack of humility. Newsflash: we have MORE homeless in LA. We have more unhoused people. That's what it is - fire victims yes. Mourning and grieving yes.... Be gentle? I can - however I will not support new clothes donations! The Airbnb offer is elitist and classist - T.Park could have been creative and utilize that business relationship to provide shelter for unhoused relatives during the atmospheric river, but didn't. She doesn't connect with everyone - she doesn't. #onetermPark

Comments for Public Posting: I have been trying to sign in - to the meeting via cell phone and your outgoing message says the meeting has not started - WHERE DO YOU HAVE NOTIFIED THE PUBLIC TODAY's MEETING IS NOT HYBIRD? No zoom or cell phone option??? Why do you torture people - gaslight us and pretend this is public engagement ???????
