Comments for Public Posting: My name is Jasmyn Lawson, and I live at the intersection of Hollywood Blvd and Martell Street. Currently, the intersection on that road is extremely busy and one of the few without a traffic light. Therefore, we often see and experience car accidents at a very high rate. As of today, I have witnessed at least four of them myself. Today, two cars almost hit each other, and one of them crashed into the elementary school, Briskin Elementary, next door, which could potentially have harmed children and or parents. Many pedestrians use this area for foot traffic, as Runyon is just up the hill. I would love for the city to consider making this intersection safer for drivers and all those in the neighborhood.
Thank you, Jasmyn
