Comments for Public Posting: My name is Julian Makara. Founder of A-Dream Foundation and L.A Modern Vintage. As a native Los Angelino (I went to high school with the honorable Council Woman Hernandez), I've dedicated my life to my community. Hundreds of hours on 911 emergency calls with Fire Station 12. I've collaborated with institutions throughout the Los Angeles area since Ed Reyes was council member. I have been petitioning support from our council member to support a new workforce development program. Incorporating my military, public service and educational experience into a curriculum into a pilot that will certainly change the lives of many people who have fallen through the cracks. It would be a wonderful honor to speak to you, Council Woman Hernandez, and your peers to ensure that generational strifes end our generation. I have already submitted requests to speak to most of your departments. Respectfully, Julian Alexander Makara
