Comments for Public Posting: My name is Dr. Jaquel Pitts, Ph.D. I am hereby requesting that the Los Angeles city council strongly considers building a basketball court at magic Johnson Park which is located at 905 E El Segundo Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90059 There is currently not a basketball court located at magic Johnson Park. How is it that there a park named after a basketball legend but the park has no basketball courts? This is absurd. This needs to change.
