INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF NATE:

Hi. I'm Nate Wood. I'm 42. I wrote The Book of Nate November of 2023. I stay in Los Angeles. I was born in Iowa. My circumcision was deliberately faked and I was mock scalped the day of my birth. I seen 4 other guys with false circumcisions in 8th grade PE class not even looking. 4 of the guys were white with one with black length. No one is Hebrew in Adel, Iowa. The 2 guys that looked Hebrew in PE had something like 80-90% of their foreskin artfully removed.

I need witness protection against my aunts. They have the KKK terrorize me everywhere I go in America since childhood for untrue birdlike lazy reasons. I believe this statistically low amount of gang activity had a roll in completely destroying today's culture. I didn't notice them doing this to me or my good dead uncle who died about 2003 until 2016.

I have an all time artist's portfolio I could keep or sell that would allow me to buy security. I tried taking it to a gallery in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019. They each told me they would get back to me in one week with money and plans. They both told me in one week they'll just steal the artwork.

I've been forced to sleep somewhere dark where I can be run over since 2018 in western states. I've been conned out of a trivial amount of welfare from hundreds of food banks, homeless shelters and educational institutions for decades across America.

The long story is that I am an all time master. The KKK has denied me basic rights and services across America for decades because I'm white and they want to hear about this sort of thing. I am asking for your help to get off the street. I am interested some in curators, conservators and match fundraisers getting money revolving around me and my artwork.

If there is anything you can do to stop my torture and pain; get me off the streets and out of public let me know.

THE BOOK OF NATE

Religious Character Wants to Escape KKK Persecution/ Wants Witness Protection/Wants Basic Human Rights

In October 1981 Nate Wood was born in Des Moines, Iowa. The KKK faked Wood's circumcision because he wasn't born with more than one penis.

Nate's father Jack Jr. constantly overfeeds Wood until 1985 and then never feeds him enough again because he is so far gone, he thinks he can wish Nate into playing football for the Dallas Cowboys but can't see anything else in the world working out for him. After Wood's father stopped feeding Nate enough his father still just knew Nate was going to only play football on television for the Dallas Cowboys since he stopped feeding him. Jack Jr. knows this should work.

In 1985 at age 4 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Gail Bauman of Polk City, Iowa starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate for not having phone sex with her on a recorded phone conversation during Nate's lunch.

Since about 1986 or age 5 the KKK has lied to Wood about having to kill him of all people for being white, black, Spanish, gay, heterosexual or illiterate. Wood's not black, Spanish, gay or illiterate. As of 2023 he's not even sexually active after having worked off his right smallest toe for no pay.

Since about 1986 the KKK has lied to Wood that all men need to be hermaphroditic, pirate like and pirate looking to get black or white people work or to talk to women or have kids.

God showed Nate in 2017 that in 1987 Jack Jr. attempts to manslaughter Nate Wood 4 times making Nate eat shit twice, coercing him off Pilot Mountain and coercing him to drown in a pool 3 feet away on a one week vacation in Holy Springs, North Carolina because Wood's father is overworked slightly and lazy some. Nate remembers Jack Jr. constantly lying and whining about latchkey Nate being needy to new relatives just on this vacation

In 1987 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Rochelle Pavon of West Des Moines starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate after seeing him get his first erection in 12 years at age 6 not knowing what it was. God told Nate 35 years later Nate got the erection from his kidnappers forcing him to nap too much and if anybody else in the world ever seen a 6-year-old get a boner but they didn't know what happened they would just innocently laugh. A lot. God told Wood in 2023 it was ok she was scared that day. What's with all this other stuff where she was never scared at all again from then on and kept terrorizing him?

The KKK starts raping Wood's mother in 1989. Wood's parents' divorce. Nate's been homeless or borderline homeless since 1989 even though everyone in his family has money except for his mother.

Since about 1990 Wood noticed the KKK instructing the general public it is okay to rape men and especially women like Nate Wood because he doesn't constantly lie out of turn about his balls being just as fun as they are. A confederacy including Wood's father explained to Wood or anyone Nate seen in the 1990's that the military has stopped supplying money, food and toilet paper to the soldiers.

On Thanksgiving Day 1992 someone coached Wood's younger cousin Lady Cookie Monster to sexually assault him and get him sent to prison. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In Fall 1995 Wood's little sister Lady Woodstock comes up with her own idea to sexually assault Nate in the bathroom for about 2 minutes like it's a joke. Nate starts acting back so she'll stop molesting him. The thing is she brags about this to everyone she sees and the KKK reveres her as a hero. Nate doesn't bring this up to anyone so if you do meet Nate some terrorist he could never dreamed of will run up and tell you like "he started it" these 2 minutes once in the 90's his sister molested him he doesn't brag about. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In about 1997 and again in 2015 Nate noticed increased lying about the need to terrorize him after he didn't want to kill Bill Clinton or Donald Trump. God told Wood God noticed a gigolo math teaching gomer lying about Nate Wood being a Democratic presidential candidate from a primary swing state as a good, honest reason to terrorize Wood in about 1997 and until this day.

In 1999 someone coached Lady Cookie Monster to rape Jack Jr. to send him to prison and it did end up working.

Wood drops out of high school in 1999 having been trained to drop out of school by the KKK since grade 6. God reminded Wood in his 30's that math and English teachers would fail him out of high school math and English for gay little theoretical reasons instead of real ones and instead of every lower person than Wood in America. God reminded Wood that in the Adel-DeSoto-Minburn middle school in the 1990's the computer teacher would black out the letters on the Apple computers and lie about nearly everyone not knowing how to type unless they were a teacher's son or best friends with a teacher's full total piss mouth little bastard werewolf son.

In 1999 a confederacy of 100 richer kids than Nate shop lift $4600 worth of candy, cigarettes and beer at a Casey's gas station Nate is working at in Adel, Iowa right before his very eyes. Inflation from 1999 to 2023 was 185%.

In between 2002 and 2008 Nate wanders the country looking for work and welfare not getting either. He moves to Texas after 9/11 and gets slave wages at 3 different restaurants for one year only. He moves around Texas, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, rural Washington, Connecticut, rural Pennsylvania never even gets hired for slave work or welfare one tenth the cost of living "because he's white" and he's not in the KKK. Since 9/11 tens of thousands of little goo brain werewolves have lied to Wood about him being scared of them and do cut him off because they have no concept of money or power; authority or respect.

In 2004 at age 23 three songs come on the radio at the same time it sounds like Nate wrote the instrumental to in 1999 at age 17. Nate goes totally insane. Wood is chronically homeless for the first time on the streets of Dallas when this happens. Wood keeps crazy enough until about 2009 when Social Security starts paying him enough to buy used clothes, junk food and nothing else.

In December 2004 a carnival kidnaps Wood in Dallas and makes him work for just cigarettes in Port Arthur until he gets sepsis too bad to move.

2005 was the last year Nate even gets slave labor working at a spaghetti restaurant in Des Moines. One of Wood's "superiors" at the spaghetti restaurant honks two 13-year-old girls' boobs at a nearby restaurant and tells the police it was Wood saying he could get away with this because even though they don't look alike they are both tall and wearing the same spaghetti restaurant shirt. Wood says he would have never found out except some new jail birds working at the restaurant lied about being mad at Wood for not getting caught in the lie. The police never asked Wood anything.

Since about 2005 or earlier 50,000 random unknown bus drivers, store clerks, librarians and government clerks Wood seen across the country have attempted to initiate a fight with Wood on camera because he is white, he won't lie out of turn about his balls being funner than everybody's and he's not in the KKK.

From 2008 to 2018 Nate has an on again off again physically gratifying relationship with an abusive girlfriend in rural Pennsylvania. She ends up being like the woman from Misery but better. He runs away from her most every chance he gets.

In 2010 Wood runs away to Southern Iowa, Northern Michigan, Northern California and Oregon State.

Since about 2010, in Nate's 30's, about 20 times a year an unseen, random bugged in the KKK throughout the United States will yell at Nate from a block away something about Wood getting sexually assaulted 1 out of 6 times during his teenage years or avoiding a sexual assault since is the reason the confederacy instructs all to murder him with criminal neglect everywhere he goes. This same random Lucky Cross Burner will ask or make graffiti about Wood not raping a popular student in public upon last sight or yell about throwing a two-day meth and LSD festival at his grandparents' house on his 18th birthday without permission from anyone as an excuse to murder him.

In 2013-2015 Wood runs away to Seattle twice, New York City twice, Brownsville, Texas and Norfolk, Virginia.

In 2017 Nate wrote a study of 17 unpublished ways how to control the weather and predicts a machine can build a house in a half an hour. Nate didn't know they already have revealed one good way to control the weather and he had seen that a machine has slowly started building houses on television in the 2020's. God told Wood later he got 100's of none replies and a few turn downs on the study about how to control the weather in Pennsylvania, Colorado, California, Washington state, Washington D.C. and Hawaii from the laziness of others, to test Wood not to brag about things God knows and he isn't in the KKK.

Nate had never been so homeless after figuring out how to control the weather. In 2018 Nate runs away from his girlfriend in Erie, Pennsylvania one last time to be chronically homeless in Denver.

In 2018 God had Nate Wood a lifelong atheist recreate priceless NFT's of private, not public master paintings all music is about some dating back to Beethoven and ancient Hebrew melody that have always been Top 40. Wood gets more none replies and two false angry one way, "mocked humorous verbal arguments" from two galleries they will just steal the priceless artwork because they can in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019.

In late 2019 following exact instruction not to even call first from a Canadian government website on how to get asylum in Canada Wood takes a bus to Canada where the confederate border guards kick him out of Canada in less than 24 hours because they are lying about his passport being fake and a loose standard posing as an ultimate law that contradicts all safety instructions on the government website for Americans because the Canadian government isn't at odds with the American government. Wood's not upset with the government either so the law has nothing to do with anything. The gay black South African "good cop" immigration lawyer told Wood he honestly sees quite a bit of what Wood is talking about going on in Canada. The 24 hours Wood was in Canada Wood seen the KKK as widespread, creepy enough but nowhere near too stupid to let Wood just take care of himself. Somebody would lie about being too stupid to let Wood take care of himself and many would lie about his passport he used for 2 months most everyday crossing the San Diego/Tijuana border being fake.

In 2019 and 2020 Wood runs away to Southern California, Mexico, Hawaii and Canada.

In 2021 Nate buys a reverend's license from the Universal Life Church off the internet homeless in Anchorage.

In 2021 over 2000 Lucky Cross Burners in Anchorage, Alaska told Wood like a bird that he wouldn't be able even to find jail bitch work anywhere in Alaska because he was white and wouldn't lie out of turn about his genitals feeling just as fun as they are. About 100 of these "random" geezers would end up circling around Wood and tell him over 100 times he was unemployable. This happens everywhere Wood goes but the not very confederate media reports to this day that all the work in the world is in Alaska. Wood was truly surprised for about the 18th time.

As of 2023 at age 42 Wood hasn't found black, white or Mexican work in 18 States. Wood has lived in New York City, Los Angeles, Seattle, San Diego, Honolulu and Anchorage 9 months each and couldn't find work because he's white and not in the KKK. Wood has reached an age where he can only do white people work because he really is white.

Progressively with age random tens of thousands of unknown "rebels", grocery clerks, government workers and librarians Wood doesn't know lied to him out of turn about not being able to take care of himself and being uneducatable. Even though slowed by age and trauma Wood could be the strongest most useful man that ever lived. Don't just assume telling some federal agent about Wood he will now be safe. Help out Wood until he is safe. You can currently call Nate and offer help and security at 213.522.9616. Nate will try to send copies of The Book of Nate every so often while he's still down.

Wood has some trauma explaining some things in his tongue and his mind after a small toe amputation and years upon years of monsters lying about him explaining himself below slavery. If you do end up patronizing Wood just believe him if he doesn't want to talk about some nonsense and refer to The Book of Nate. Do not send money to the return address. It is an unsafe address for mostly picking up mail order packages. You may be able to email Wood at natewood2041@gmail.com. Leave a message for Wood at 213.522.9616.

After I wrote the Book of Nate I sent 7 copies to everyone you can think of. I sent 7 copies to the White House. I sent 7 copies to the Casa Bonita. I sent 7 copies to the Taos Artist Colony, Al Sharpton, the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. Things have remained so out of hand I even sent 7 copies to Jail Booger The World's First One Legged Muslim; the head leader of Des Moines and the Des Moines KKK asking him if I to can be in the KKK like everyone. God told me Jail Booger could be real or false. You wouldn't want to see somebody lying about being a Muslim on television or anywhere. God told me I wouldn't know if he's lying or not lying because I don't know him. From real inside stuff gangsters have told me about "American black Muslims" from Hartford to Harlem to Honolulu you can go ahead and probably just flick old Jail Booger against the wall.

Dear State Senator Jail Booger,

What it be like? Please, oh please Jail Booger the world's first Iowa TV nigger Muslim. Please initiate me into the Klu Klux Klans. I promise I'll now be able to start lying about attending Gomerton Pyle University in Ames the thousandth most trusted historically all jewish crackhead, serial child molester, slow lazy titty honker university in America. They say, "There's over a billion ways to child molest a not jewish person!" That's there motto.

If you can just find it in your heart to front me $47K a year to barely run a pineapple juice stand 3 mornings a week like everyone else in Los Angeles, the world's first all white, non KKK, mostly pineapple juice cart vending city in the world that would do. I thank you so much for your time.

In late 2019 following exact instruction not to even call first from a Canadian government website on how to get asylum in Canada Wood takes a bus to Canada where the confederate border guards kick him out of Canada in less than 24 hours because they are lying about his passport being fake and a loose standard posing as an ultimate law that contradicts all safety instructions on the government website for Americans because the Canadian government isn't at odds with the American government. Wood's not upset with the government either so the law has nothing to do with anything. The gay black South African "good cop" immigration lawyer told Wood he honestly sees quite a bit of what Wood is talking about going on in Canada. The 24 hours Wood was in Canada Wood seen the KKK as widespread, creepy enough but nowhere near too stupid to let Wood just take care of himself. Somebody would lie about being too stupid to let Wood take care of himself and many would lie about his passport he used for 2 months most everyday crossing the San Diego/Tijuana border being fake.

In 2019 and 2020 Wood runs away to Southern California, Mexico, Hawaii and Canada.

In 2021 Nate buys a reverend's license from the Universal Life Church off the internet homeless in Anchorage.

In 2021 over 2000 Lucky Cross Burners in Anchorage, Alaska told Wood like a bird that he wouldn't be able even to find jail bitch work anywhere in Alaska because he was white and wouldn't lie out of turn about his genitals feeling just as fun as they are. About 100 of these "random" geezers would end up circling around Wood and tell him over 100 times he was unemployable. This happens everywhere Wood goes but the not very confederate media reports to this day that all the work in the world is in Alaska. Wood was truly surprised for about the 18th time.

As of 2023 at age 42 Wood hasn't found black, white or Mexican work in 18 States. Wood has lived in New York City, Los Angeles, Seattle, San Diego, Honolulu and Anchorage 9 months each and couldn't find work because he's white and not in the KKK. Wood has reached an age where he can only do white people work because he really is white.

Progressively with age random tens of thousands of unknown "rebels", grocery clerks, government workers and librarians Wood doesn't know lied to him out of turn about not being able to take care of himself and being uneducatable. Even though slowed by age and trauma Wood could be the strongest most useful man that ever lived. Don't just assume telling some federal agent about Wood he will now be safe. Help out Wood until he is safe. You can currently call Nate and offer help and security at 213.522.9616. Nate will try to send copies of The Book of Nate every so often while he's still down.

Wood has some trauma explaining some things in his tongue and his mind after a small toe amputation and years upon years of monsters lying about him explaining himself below slavery. If you do end up patronizing Wood just believe him if he doesn't want to talk about some nonsense and refer to The Book of Nate. Do not send money to the return address. It is an unsafe address for mostly picking up mail order packages. You may be able to email Wood at natewood2041@gmail.com. Leave a message for Wood at 213.522.9616.

Reflections of America: The Living Tree

An Afterword by Nate Wood

After I wrote the Book of Nate I sent 7 copies to everyone you can think of. I sent 7 copies to the White House. I sent 7 copies to the Casa Bonita. I sent 7 copies to the Taos Artist Colony, Al Sharpton, the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. Things have remained so out of hand I even sent 7 copies to Jail Booger The World's First One Legged Muslim; the head leader of Des Moines and the Des Moines KKK asking him if I to can be in the KKK like everyone. God told me Jail Booger could be real or false. You wouldn't want to see somebody lying about being a Muslim on television or anywhere. God told me I wouldn't know if he's lying or not lying because I don't know him. From real inside stuff gangsters have told me about "American black Muslims" from Hartford to Harlem to Honolulu you can go ahead and probably just flick old Jail Booger against the wall.

Dear State Senator Jail Booger,

What it be like? Please, oh please Jail Booger the world's first Iowa TV nigger Muslim. Please initiate me into the Klu Klux Klans. I promise I'll now be able to start lying about attending Gomerton Pyle University in Ames the thousandth most trusted historically all jewish crackhead, serial child molester, slow lazy titty honker university in America. They say, "There's over a billion ways to child molest a not jewish person!" That's there motto.

If you can just find it in your heart to front me $47K a year to barely run a pineapple juice stand 3 mornings a week like everyone else in Los Angeles, the world's first all white, non KKK, mostly pineapple juice cart vending city in the world that would do. I thank you so much for your time.

INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF NATE:

Hi. I'm Nate Wood. I'm 42. I wrote The Book of Nate November of 2023. I stay in Los Angeles. I was born in Iowa. My circumcision was deliberately faked and I was mock scalped the day of my birth. I seen 4 other guys with false circumcisions in 8th grade PE class not even looking. 4 of the guys were white with one with black length. No one is Hebrew in Adel, Iowa. The 2 guys that looked Hebrew in PE had something like 80-90% of their foreskin artfully removed.

I need witness protection against my aunts. They have the KKK terrorize me everywhere I go in America since childhood for untrue birdlike lazy reasons. I believe this statistically low amount of gang activity had a roll in completely destroying today's culture. I didn't notice them doing this to me or my good dead uncle who died about 2003 until 2016.

I have an all time artist's portfolio I could keep or sell that would allow me to buy security. I tried taking it to a gallery in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019. They each told me they would get back to me in one week with money and plans. They both told me in one week they'll just steal the artwork.

I've been forced to sleep somewhere dark where I can be run over since 2018 in western states. I've been conned out of a trivial amount of welfare from hundreds of food banks, homeless shelters and educational institutions for decades across America.

The long story is that I am an all time master. The KKK has denied me basic rights and services across America for decades because I'm white and they want to hear about this sort of thing. I am asking for your help to get off the street. I am interested some in curators, conservators and match fundraisers getting money revolving around me and my artwork.

If there is anything you can do to stop my torture and pain; get me off the streets and out of public let me know.

THE BOOK OF NATE

Religious Character Wants to Escape KKK Persecution/ Wants Witness Protection/Wants Basic Human Rights

In October 1981 Nate Wood was born in Des Moines, Iowa. The KKK faked Wood's circumcision because he wasn't born with more than one penis.

Nate's father Jack Jr. constantly overfeeds Wood until 1985 and then never feeds him enough again because he is so far gone, he thinks he can wish Nate into playing football for the Dallas Cowboys but can't see anything else in the world working out for him. After Wood's father stopped feeding Nate enough his father still just knew Nate was going to only play football on television for the Dallas Cowboys since he stopped feeding him. Jack Jr. knows this should work.

In 1985 at age 4 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Gail Bauman of Polk City, Iowa starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate for not having phone sex with her on a recorded phone conversation during Nate's lunch.

Since about 1986 or age 5 the KKK has lied to Wood about having to kill him of all people for being white, black, Spanish, gay, heterosexual or illiterate. Wood's not black, Spanish, gay or illiterate. As of 2023 he's not even sexually active after having worked off his right smallest toe for no pay.

Since about 1986 the KKK has lied to Wood that all men need to be hermaphroditic, pirate like and pirate looking to get black or white people work or to talk to women or have kids.

God showed Nate in 2017 that in 1987 Jack Jr. attempts to manslaughter Nate Wood 4 times making Nate eat shit twice, coercing him off Pilot Mountain and coercing him to drown in a pool 3 feet away on a one week vacation in Holy Springs, North Carolina because Wood's father is overworked slightly and lazy some. Nate remembers Jack Jr. constantly lying and whining about latchkey Nate being needy to new relatives just on this vacation

In 1987 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Rochelle Pavon of West Des Moines starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate after seeing him get his first erection in 12 years at age 6 not knowing what it was. God told Nate 35 years later Nate got the erection from his kidnappers forcing him to nap too much and if anybody else in the world ever seen a 6-year-old get a boner but they didn't know what happened they would just innocently laugh. A lot. God told Wood in 2023 it was ok she was scared that day. What's with all this other stuff where she was never scared at all again from then on and kept terrorizing him?

The KKK starts raping Wood's mother in 1989. Wood's parents' divorce. Nate's been homeless or borderline homeless since 1989 even though everyone in his family has money except for his mother.

Since about 1990 Wood noticed the KKK instructing the general public it is okay to rape men and especially women like Nate Wood because he doesn't constantly lie out of turn about his balls being just as fun as they are. A confederacy including Wood's father explained to Wood or anyone Nate seen in the 1990's that the military has stopped supplying money, food and toilet paper to the soldiers.

On Thanksgiving Day 1992 someone coached Wood's younger cousin Lady Cookie Monster to sexually assault him and get him sent to prison. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In Fall 1995 Wood's little sister Lady Woodstock comes up with her own idea to sexually assault Nate in the bathroom for about 2 minutes like it's a joke. Nate starts acting back so she'll stop molesting him. The thing is she brags about this to everyone she sees and the KKK reveres her as a hero. Nate doesn't bring this up to anyone so if you do meet Nate some terrorist he could never dreamed of will run up and tell you like "he started it" these 2 minutes once in the 90's his sister molested him he doesn't brag about. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In about 1997 and again In 2015 Nate noticed increased lying about the need to terrorize him after he didn't want to kill Bill Clinton or Donald Trump. God told Wood God noticed a gigolo math teaching gomer lying about Nate Wood being a Democratic presidential candidate from a primary swing state as a good, honest reason to terrorize Wood in about 1997 and until this day.

In 1999 someone coached Lady Cookie Monster to rape Jack Jr. to send him to prison and it did end up working.

Wood drops out of high school in 1999 having been trained to drop out of school by the KKK since grade 6. God reminded Wood in his 30's that math and English teachers would fail him out of high school math and English for gay little theoretical reasons instead of real ones and instead of every lower person than Wood in America. God reminded Wood that in the Adel-DeSoto-Minburn middle school in the 1990's the computer teacher would black out the letters on the Apple computers and lie about nearly everyone not knowing how to type unless they were a teacher's son or best friends with a teacher's full total piss mouth little bastard werewolf son.

In 1999 a confederacy of 100 richer kids than Nate shop lift $4600 worth of candy, cigarettes and beer at a Casey's gas station Nate is working at in Adel, Iowa right before his very eyes. Inflation from 1999 to 2023 was 185%.

In between 2002 and 2008 Nate wanders the country looking for work and welfare not getting either. He moves to Texas after 9/11 and gets slave wages at 3 different restaurants for one year only. He moves around Texas, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, rural Washington, Connecticut, rural Pennsylvania never even gets hired for slave work or welfare one tenth the cost of living "because he's white" and he's not in the KKK. Since 9/11 tens of thousands of little goo brain werewolves have lied to Wood about him being scared of them and do cut him off because they have no concept of money or power; authority or respect.

In 2004 at age 23 three songs come on the radio at the same time it sounds like Nate wrote the instrumental to in 1999 at age 17. Nate goes totally insane. Wood is chronically homeless for the first time on the streets of Dallas when this happens. Wood keeps crazy enough until about 2009 when Social Security starts paying him enough to buy used clothes, junk food and nothing else.

In December 2004 a carnival kidnaps Wood in Dallas and makes him work for just cigarettes in Port Arthur until he gets sepsis too bad to move.

2005 was the last year Nate even gets slave labor working at a spaghetti restaurant in Des Moines. One of Wood's "superiors" at the spaghetti restaurant honks two 13-year-old girls' boobs at a nearby restaurant and tells the police it was Wood saying he could get away with this because even though they don't look alike they are both tall and wearing the same spaghetti restaurant shirt. Wood says he would have never found out except some new jail birds working at the restaurant lied about being mad at Wood for not getting caught in the lie. The police never asked Wood anything.

Since about 2005 or earlier 50,000 random unknown bus drivers, store clerks, librarians and government clerks Wood seen across the country have attempted to initiate a fight with Wood on camera because he is white, he won't lie out of turn about his balls being funner than everybody's and he's not in the KKK.

From 2008 to 2018 Nate has an on again off again physically gratifying relationship with an abusive girlfriend in rural Pennsylvania. She ends up being like the woman from Misery but better. He runs away from her most every chance he gets.

In 2010 Wood runs away to Southern Iowa, Northern Michigan, Northern California and Oregon State.

Since about 2010, in Nate's 30's, about 20 times a year an unseen, random bugger in the KKK throughout the United States will yell at Nate from a block away something about Wood getting sexually assaulted 1 out of 6 times during his teenage years or avoiding a sexual assault since is the reason the confederacy instructs all to murder him with criminal neglect everywhere he goes. This same random Lucky Cross Burner will ask or make graffiti about Wood not raping a popular student in public upon last sight or yell about throwing a two-day meth and LSD festival at his grandparents' house on his 18th birthday without permission from anyone as an excuse to murder him.

In 2013-2015 Wood runs away to Seattle twice, New York City twice, Brownsville, Texas and Norfolk, Virginia.

In 2017 Nate wrote a study of 17 unpublished ways how to control the weather and predicts a machine can build a house in a half an hour. Nate didn't know they already have revealed one good way to control the weather and he had seen that a machine has slowly started building houses on television in the 2020's. God told Wood later he got 100's of none replies and a few turn downs on the study about how to control the weather in Pennsylvania, Colorado, California, Washington state, Washington D.C. and Hawaii from the laziness of others, to test Wood not to brag about things God knows and he isn't in the KKK.

Nate had never been so homeless after figuring out how to control the weather. In 2018 Nate runs away from his girlfriend in Erie, Pennsylvania one last time to be chronically homeless in Denver.

In 2018 God had Nate Wood a lifelong atheist recreate priceless NFT's of private, not public master paintings all music is about some dating back to Beethoven and ancient Hebrew melody that have always been Top 40. Wood gets more none replies and two false angry one way, "mocked humorous verbal arguments" from two galleries they will just steal the priceless artwork because they can in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019.

In late 2019 following exact instruction not to even call first from a Canadian government website on how to get asylum in Canada Wood takes a bus to Canada where the confederate border guards kick him out of Canada in less than 24 hours because they are lying about his passport being fake and a loose standard posing as an ultimate law that contradicts all safety instructions on the government website for Americans because the Canadian government isn't at odds with the American government. Wood's not upset with the government either so the law has nothing to do with anything. The gay black South African "good cop" immigration lawyer told Wood he honestly sees quite a bit of what Wood is talking about going on in Canada. The 24 hours Wood was in Canada Wood seen the KKK as widespread, creepy enough but nowhere near too stupid to let Wood just take care of himself. Somebody would lie about being too stupid to let Wood take care of himself and many would lie about his passport he used for 2 months most everyday crossing the San Diego/Tijuana border being fake.

In 2019 and 2020 Wood runs away to Southern California, Mexico, Hawaii and Canada.

In 2021 Nate buys a reverend's license from the Universal Life Church off the internet homeless in Anchorage.

In 2021 over 2000 Lucky Cross Burners in Anchorage, Alaska told Wood like a bird that he wouldn't be able even to find jail bitch work anywhere in Alaska because he was white and wouldn't lie out of turn about his genitals feeling just as fun as they are. In between 2002 and 2008 Nate wanders the country looking for work and welfare not getting either. He moves to Texas after 9/11 and gets slave wages at 3 different restaurants for one year only. He moves around Texas, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, rural Washington, Connecticut, rural Pennsylvania never even gets hired for slave work or welfare one tenth the cost of living "because he's white" and he's not in the KKK. Since 9/11 tens of thousands of little goo brain werewolves have lied to Wood about him being scared of them and do cut him off because they have no concept of money or power; authority or respect.

In 2004 at age 23 three songs come on the radio at the same time it sounds like Nate wrote the instrumental to in 1999 at age 17. Nate goes totally insane. Wood is chronically homeless for the first time on the streets of Dallas when this happens. Wood keeps crazy enough until about 2009 when Social Security starts paying him enough to buy used clothes, junk food and nothing else.

In December 2004 a carnival kidnaps Wood in Dallas and makes him work for just cigarettes in Port Arthur until he gets sepsis too bad to move.

2005 was the last year Nate even gets slave labor working at a spaghetti restaurant in Des Moines. One of Wood's "superiors" at the spaghetti restaurant honks two 13-year-old girls' boobs at a nearby restaurant and tells the police it was Wood saying he could get away with this because even though they don't look alike they are both tall and wearing the same spaghetti restaurant shirt. Wood says he would have never found out except some new jail birds working at the restaurant lied about being mad at Wood for not getting caught in the lie. The police never asked Wood anything.

Since about 2005 or earlier 50,000 random unknown bus drivers, store clerks, librarians and government clerks Wood seen across the country have attempted to initiate a fight with Wood on camera because he is white, he won't lie out of turn about his balls being funner than everybody's and he's not in the KKK.

From 2008 to 2018 Nate has an on again off again physically gratifying relationship with an abusive girlfriend in rural Pennsylvania. She ends up being like the woman from Misery but better. He runs away from her most every chance he gets.

In 2010 Wood runs away to Southern Iowa, Northern Michigan, Northern California and Oregon State.

Since about 2010, in Nate's 30's, about 20 times a year an unseen, random bugged in the KKK throughout the United States will yell at Nate from a block away something about Wood getting sexually assaulted 1 out of 6 times during his teenage years or avoiding a sexual assault since is the reason the confederacy instructs all to murder him with criminal neglect everywhere he goes. This same random Lucky Cross Burner will ask or make graffiti about Wood not raping a popular student in public upon last sight or yell about throwing a two-day meth and LSD festival at his grandparents' house on his 18th birthday without permission from anyone as an excuse to murder him.

In 2013-2015 Wood runs away to Seattle twice, New York City twice, Brownsville, Texas and Norfolk, Virginia.

In 2017 Nate wrote a study of 17 unpublished ways how to control the weather and predicts a machine can build a house in a half an hour. Nate didn't know they already have revealed one good way to control the weather and he had seen that a machine has slowly started building houses on television in the 2020's. God told Wood later he got 100's of none replies and a few turn downs on the study about how to control the weather in Pennsylvania, Colorado, California, Washington state, Washington D.C. and Hawaii from the laziness of others, to test Wood not to brag about things God knows and he isn't in the KKK.

Nate had never been so homeless after figuring out how to control the weather. In 2018 Nate runs away from his girlfriend in Erie, Pennsylvania one last time to be chronically homeless in Denver.

In 2018 God had Nate Wood a lifelong atheist recreate priceless NFT's of private, not public master paintings all music is about some dating back to Beethoven and ancient Hebrew melody that have always been Top 40. Wood gets more none replies and two false angry one way, "mocked humorous verbal arguments" from two galleries they will just steal the priceless artwork because they can in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019.

In late 2019 following exact instruction not to even call first from a Canadian government website on how to get asylum in Canada Wood takes a bus to Canada where the confederate border guards kick him out of Canada in less than 24 hours because they are lying about his passport being fake and a loose standard posing as an ultimate law that contradicts all safety instructions on the government website for Americans because the Canadian government isn't at odds with the American government. Wood's not upset with the government either so the law has nothing to do with anything. The gay black South African "good cop" immigration lawyer told Wood he honestly sees quite a bit of what Wood is talking about going on in Canada. The 24 hours Wood was in Canada Wood seen the KKK as widespread, creepy enough but nowhere near too stupid to let Wood just take care of himself. Somebody would lie about being too stupid to let Wood take care of himself and many would lie about his passport he used for 2 months most everyday crossing the San Diego/Tijuana border being fake.

In 2019 and 2020 Wood runs away to Southern California, Mexico, Hawaii and Canada.

In 2021 Nate buys a reverend's license from the Universal Life Church off the internet homeless in Anchorage.

In 2021 over 2000 Lucky Cross Burners in Anchorage, Alaska told Wood like a bird that he wouldn't be able even to find jail bitch work anywhere in Alaska because he was white and wouldn't lie out of turn about his genitals feeling just as fun as they are. About 100 of these "random" geezers would end up circling around Wood and tell him over 100 times he was unemployable. This happens everywhere Wood goes but the not very confederate media reports to this day that all the work in the world is in Alaska. Wood was truly surprised for about the 18th time.

As of 2023 at age 42 Wood hasn't found black, white or Mexican work in 18 States. Wood has lived in New York City, Los Angeles, Seattle, San Diego, Honolulu and Anchorage 9 months each and couldn't find work because he's white and not in the KKK. Wood has reached an age where he can only do white people work because he really is white.

Progressively with age random tens of thousands of unknown "rebels", grocery clerks, government workers and librarians Wood doesn't know lied to him out of turn about not being able to take care of himself and being uneducatable. Even though slowed by age and trauma Wood could be the strongest most useful man that ever lived. Don't just assume telling some federal agent about Wood he will now be safe. Help out Wood until he is safe. You can currently call Nate and offer help and security at 213.522.9616. Nate will try to send copies of The Book of Nate every so often while he's still down.

Wood has some trauma explaining some things in his tongue and his mind after a small toe amputation and years upon years of monsters lying about him explaining himself below slavery. If you do end up patronizing Wood just believe him if he doesn't want to talk about some nonsense and refer to The Book of Nate. Do not send money to the return address. It is an unsafe address for mostly picking up mail order packages. You may be able to email Wood at natewood2041@gmail.com. Leave a message for Wood at 213.522.9616.

Reflections of America: The Living Tree

An Afterword by Nate Wood

After I wrote the Book of Nate I sent 7 copies to everyone you can think of. I sent 7 copies to the White House. I sent 7 copies to the Casa Bonita. I sent 7 copies to the Taos Artist Colony, Al Sharpton, the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. Things have remained so out of hand I even sent 7 copies to Jail Booger The World's First One Legged Muslim; the head leader of Des Moines and the Des Moines KKK asking him if I to can be in the KKK like everyone. God told me Jail Booger could be real or false. You wouldn't want to see somebody lying about being a Muslim on television or anywhere. God told me I wouldn't know if he's lying or not lying because I don't know him. From real inside stuff gangsters have told me about "American black Muslims" from Hartford to Harlem to Honolulu you can go ahead and probably just flick old Jail Booger against the wall.

Dear State Senator Jail Booger,

What it be like? Please, oh please Jail Booger the world's first Iowa TV nigger Muslim. Please initiate me into the Klu Klux Klans. I promise I'll now be able to start lying about attending Gomerton Pyle University in Ames the thousandth most trusted historically all jewish crackhead, serial child molester, slow lazy titty honker university in America. They say, "There's over a billion ways to child molest a not jewish person!" That's there motto.

If you can just find it in your heart to front me $47K a year to barely run a pineapple juice stand 3 mornings a week like everyone else in Los Angeles, the world's first all white, non KKK, mostly pineapple juice cart vending city in the world that would do. I thank you so much for your time.

Niggy Nigga Please,

INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF NATE:

Hi. I'm Nate Wood. I'm 42. I wrote The Book of Nate November of 2023. I stay in Los Angeles. I was born in Iowa. My circumcision was deliberately faked and I was mock scalped the day of my birth. I seen 4 other guys with false circumcisions in 8th grade PE class not even looking. 4 of the guys were white with one with black length. No one is Hebrew in Adel, Iowa. The 2 guys that looked Hebrew in PE had something like 80-90% of their foreskin artfully removed.

I need witness protection against my aunts. They have the KKK terrorize me everywhere I go in America since childhood for untrue birdlike lazy reasons. I believe this statistically low amount of gang activity had a roll in completely destroying today's culture. I didn't notice them doing this to me or my good dead uncle who died about 2003 until 2016.

I have an all time artist's portfolio I could keep or sell that would allow me to buy security. I tried taking it to a gallery in Denver 2018 and Bellingham 2019. They each told me they would get back to me in one week with money and plans. They both told me in one week they'll just steal the artwork.

I've been forced to sleep somewhere dark where I can be run over since 2018 in western states. I've been conned out of a trivial amount of welfare from hundreds of food banks, homeless shelters and educational institutions for decades across America.

The long story is that I am an all time master. The KKK has denied me basic rights and services across America for decades because I'm white and they want to hear about this sort of thing. I am asking for your help to get off the street. I am interested some in curators, conservators and match fundraisers getting money revolving around me and my artwork.

If there is anything you can do to stop my torture and pain; get me off the streets and out of public let me know.

THE BOOK OF NATE

Religious Character Wants to Escape KKK Persecution/ Wants Witness Protection/Wants Basic Human Rights

In October 1981 Nate Wood was born in Des Moines, Iowa. The KKK faked Wood's circumcision because he wasn't born with more than one penis.

Nate's father Jack Jr. constantly overfeeds Wood until 1985 and then never feeds him enough again because he is so far gone, he thinks he can wish Nate into playing football for the Dallas Cowboys but can't see anything else in the world working out for him. After Wood's father stopped feeding Nate enough his father still just knew Nate was going to only play football on television for the Dallas Cowboys since he stopped feeding him. Jack Jr. knows this should work.

In 1985 at age 4 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Gail Bauman of Polk City, Iowa starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate for not having phone sex with her on a recorded phone conversation during Nate's lunch.

Since about 1986 or age 5 the KKK has lied to Wood about having to kill him if all people for being white, black, Spanish, gay, heterosexual or illiterate. Wood's not black, Spanish, gay or illiterate. As of 2023 he's not even sexually active after having worked off his right smallest toe for no pay.

Since about 1986 the KKK has lied to Wood that all men need to be hermaphroditic, pirate like and pirate looking to get black or white people work or to talk to women or have kids.

God showed Nate in 2017 that in 1987 Jack Jr. attempts to manslaughter Nate Wood 4 times making Nate eat shit twice, coercing him off Pilot Mountain and coercing him to drown in a pool 3 feet away on a one week vacation in Holy Springs, North Carolina because Wood's father is overworked slightly and lazy some. Nate remembers Jack Jr. constantly lying and whining about latchkey Nate being needy to new relatives just on this vacation

In 1987 one of Nate's aunts on his father's side Rochelle Pavon of West Des Moines starts permanently allowing the KKK to terrorize Nate after seeing him get his first erection in 12 years at age 6 not knowing what it was. God told Nate 35 years later Nate got the erection from his kidnappers forcing him to nap too much and if anybody else in the world ever seen a 6-year-old get a boner but they didn't know what happened they would just innocently laugh. A lot. God told Wood in 2023 it was ok she was scared that day. What's with all this other stuff where she was never scared at all again from then on and kept terrorizing him?

The KKK starts raping Wood's mother in 1989. Wood's parents' divorce. Nate's been homeless or borderline homeless since 1989 even though everyone in his family has money except for his mother.

Since about 1990 Wood noticed the KKK instructing the general public it is okay to rape men and especially women like Nate Wood because he doesn't constantly lie out of turn about his balls being just as fun as they are. A confederacy including Wood's father explained to Wood or anyone Nate seen in the 1990's that the military has stopped supplying money, food and toilet paper to the soldiers.

On Thanksgiving Day 1992 someone coached Wood's younger cousin Lady Cookie Monster to sexually assault him and get him sent to prison. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In Fall 1995 Wood's little sister Lady Woodstock comes up with her own idea to sexually assault Nate in the bathroom for about 2 minutes like it's a joke. Nate starts acting back so she'll stop molesting him. The thing is she brags about this to everyone she sees and the KKK reveres her as a hero. Nate doesn't bring this up to anyone so if you do meet Nate some terrorist he could never dreamed of will run up and tell you like "he started it" these 2 minutes once in the 90's his sister molested him he doesn't brag about. Nate didn't let anything happen.

In about 1997 and again in 2015 Nate noticed increased lying about the need to terrorize him after he didn't want to kill Bill Clinton or Donald Trump. God told Wood God noticed a gigolo math teaching gomer lying about Nate Wood being a Democratic presidential candidate from a primary swing state as a good, honest reason to terrorize Wood in about 1997 and until this day.

In 1999 someone coached Lady Cookie Monster to rape Jack Jr. to send him to prison and it did end up working.

Wood drops out of high school in 1999 having been trained to drop out of school by the KKK since grade 6. God reminded Wood in his 30's that math and English teachers would fail him out of high school math and English for gay little theoretical reasons instead of real ones and instead of every lower person than Wood in America. God reminded Wood that in the Adel-DeSoto-Minburn middle school in the 1990's the computer teacher would black out the letters on the Apple computers and lie about nearly everyone not knowing how to type unless they were a teacher's son or best friends with a teacher's full total piss mouth little bastard werewolf son.

In 1999 a confederacy of 100 richer kids than Nate shop lift $4600 worth of candy, cigarettes and beer at a Casey's gas station Nate is working at in Adel, Iowa right before his very eyes. Inflation from 1999 to 2023 was 185%.

In between 2002 and 2008 Nate wanders the country looking for work and welfare not getting either. He moves to Texas after 9/11 and gets slave wages at 3 different restaurants for one year only.
