Hello,

I'm writing to you based on some unsettling information I received about a candidate running for public office. My cousin Evelin is dating someone who is not fit to run for public office. She's been dating Dante Clark on and off for over 15 years.

Over this time I have seen him manipulate Evelin in ways that turn my stomach and break my heart. Evelin doesn't always make the best choices in guys but Dante is by far the worst of them all. For example, he introduced my cousin to a life of sexual perversion by manipulating her into having threesomes and group sex at many underground swingers/sex clubs around Los Angeles. About 10 years ago she told me that he would make her take ecstasy before they went because it would "be more fun" that way. At first she did it to make him happy because she loved him, but after she told him she was no longer interested, he threatened to tell her mother and father as well as post their homemade pics/videos on GF Revenge sites. I told Evelin that he can go to jail for blackmailing her and she should report him to the authorities, but due to her legal status she didn't want to get the authorities involved for the risk of being deported.

To pacify my cousin, he did lease her a car, but I later learned that he would use this car as leverage to keep her in this toxic relationship seeing that she would need the car to get to work and use for her daily activities. He hasn't physically abused her to my knowledge, but did threaten to "expose" her if she tried to get out of the relationship even though he was engaged and has a daughter with another woman. I have personally seen the text messages of him threatening to "go to war" if she ever dated someone else or leaving him. He would also state that he "owned" her and no one would ever want to be with an uneducated illegal immigrant. It absolutely breaks my heart when anyone, especially my family is being mistreated and manipulated.

Evelin did however manage to briefly break away from Dante's grasp and was dating someone else whom she conceived a child with. During this break, Evelin was able to regain her life back and start over with her son's father. Unfortunately, like many relationships, it didn't last and I suspect that Dante had something to do with the break up as Dante and Evelin are back together now. Evelin as well as her 3 year old son have both tested positive for COVID-19. It's to my understanding that Dante exposed her to this virus and is threatening to report her to I.C.E. as well as to Child Protective Services. He is a very spiteful man, and will stop at nothing to get his way and prove that his power is dominant over my cousin and he must obey him or feel his wrath.

Dante does have a shady past as he is affiliated with "questionable" people in the music industry. From what Evelin has told me, Dante is a "Clout Chaser" and will do any and everything to gain favor in people's eyes. He has provided illegal substances such as weed, ecstasy, cocaine, and alcohol to various artists (some from what I was told are under the age of 21).

Dante has undergone an image transformation since he has been bitten by the "Political Bug." He comes off as a caring and compassionate man, but has many vices/skeletons and will manipulate, bribe and extort people to get what he wants.

My concern is if he is granted the power and clout of being in office or holding an influential political position, that his ego will convince him that he is "untouchable." It's our duty as Angelenos to protect the integrity of any political seat and if someone who is corrupt is trying to run for office, it's our duty as citizens to ONLY elect officials that are competent and morally fit.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Below are some of his social media links.
