I support the current proposal in China to stop killing and eating dogs. Dogs are pets not food. Bob Lupo

Shouldn't this be going to the Federal Government? I did pass it along to an LA Prosecutor.

Trump passed a Federal law stating that it is a Federal crime to abuse an animal. They need to be reported.

I am passing along to our lead police officer.

I looked at the cc list and didn't see the governor copied. I may have missed it.

Mike Bonin is causing the blight so that he can buy up our "distressed properties" when we have to sell. He's been recorded saying it. Listen to the first few minutes of this audio. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=z-A3gzcS-bk&t=67m10s>

Why else would Bonin allow thousands of aggressive dangerous vagrants to set up encampments all over Venice and tell the police to stand down?

Bonin literally moved 154 homeless into his Bridge Home, where encampments now grow all around it. People are afraid to leave their homes.

Here are the details.

Subject: Re: Vicious dogs of homeless attack and kill on Venice Boardwalk

Thank you, Shandi, and I add my name to your concerns. I have long been very concerned and nervous about walking on the Boardwalk with aggressive dogs off leash. Our concerns sent to our Councilman have gone ignored and unanswered. Our concerns have been sent to LAPD, yet the dangerous conditions continue.

What happened this week was horrendous, and as a member of this community I am heartbroken for her. Sadly, it took this tragedy to perhaps, finally, get our city to respond to the out of control lawlessness and dangerous conditions that exist and threaten us all. I fully support any legal action that the victims may wish to take against the city--perhaps the only way we will get any support and protections is when it hits the pocketbook of LA--which sadly, we the taxpayers eventually payout.
