The person doing this is mentally ill. This is an attempt to fraud, please read the link to understand more: http://clkrep.lacity.org/onlinedocs/2017/17-0453_pc_07-23-2018.pdf

The information is all fake, that person has mental problems, and is unknown for the signature, but, the act. And does not work for the signature. The people involved are attempting a Property Grand Theft and Crime in Health, there is no health problem and they are operating under stolen credentials. The letter contains false information, as well as all the letters, that were written. The person doing this is in courts and under the act of the state bar signature. Thank you very much for making corrections, and make a difference in the community.

Informing the department, an Organizational Behavior Specialist.
