Subject: HELP Disabled Veteran Jessica Miles Get Back Into C.T.R.S.

Good day to all,

Jessica Miles a disabled Army Veteran and a mother, has been illegally evicted from her home on August 4th with her belongings locked inside. She was living at C.T.R.S. which is at the West LA VA. She was given no written notice on when to leave. Jessica is being retaliated against for raising issues and concerns for her and other women's safety at C.T.R.S. Here is some video footage: https://youtu.be/kUdO_daED7k This is the second black woman that has been kicked out of C.T.R.S. in the same manner, of no notice and their door locked with belongings inside. There must be an investigation immediately into C.T.R.S. and the social workers/directors allowing this to continue. Jessica Miles has been on a waitlist for the only housing that is safe and available to her and her child which is why she has been staying at C.T.R.S. Please consider allowing Jessica Miles back into C.T.R.S. immediately as her health and life is deteriorating from the stress of being locked out of her "tiny home". The West Los Angeles VA, also known as a Soldiers Home was deeded in 1888 to be a disabled social home to heal and get well with one of the best medical centers in the world. One that Jessica visits regularly to heal and get well. Since the 1980's private interest has built on the land at the expense of Veterans being denied much needed services and suitable housing. Please investigate and look into this matter immediately. Thank you for looking into this matter, I am Norma Torres Olivieri, please help demand Jessica Miles remain at C.T.R.S.

Wishing you all the best and continued success,
Norma Torres Olivieri, RMA

Hello,

As a disabled veteran, Jessica was living at C.T.R.S. which is at the West LA VA. She was given no written notice on when to leave. This is the second black woman that has been kicked out of C.T.R.S. with no notice and their door locked with belongings inside. We are requesting an investigation immediately into C.T.R.S. and the social workers/directors allowing this to continue. Please consider allowing Jessica Miles back into C.T.R.S. immediately as her health and life are deteriorating from the stress of being locked out of her home.

The West Los Angeles VA, also known as a Soldiers Home was deeded in 1888 to be a disabled socialed home to heal and get well with one of the best medical centers in the world. One that Jessica visits regularly to heal and get well.

Please take this request seriously and thank you for looking into this matter,

I really don't know the history of any of you but I do know that this woman is a veteran. She fought for the that pays you. She defended your rights to be where you are. Why can't you give a moment of time and do the same for her?

I know that in housing you cannot have committed any crimes and you are allowed to appeal when you are potentially about to be expelled. I don't see anywhere where she was given these options.

We live in the United States of America or even if someone is presumed to have done something they still have the chance to show you that that presumption is wrong we actually live in a country where we are supposed to be presumed innocent but a lot of people of color are not given that presumption.

I just hope that you look at yourselves and know that this could happen to anyone and we should be a country that takes care of those that stand up for our rights to be who we are. I don't think this is a matter of what political party your way I think it's more a matter of treating a human with basic decency. She did more than that for all of you.

Please keep in housing.

Subject: HELP Disabled Veteran Jessica Miles Get Back Into C.T.R.S.

Jessica Miles is a disabled Army Veteran and a mother.

She has been illegally evicted from her home on August 4th with her belongings locked inside. She was living at C.T.R.S. which is at the West LA VA. She was given no written notice on when to leave. Jessica is being retaliated against for raising issues and concerns for her and other women's safety at C.T.R.S. Here is some video footage: https://youtu.be/kUdO_daED7k This is the second Black woman that has been kicked out of C.T.R.S. in the same manner, with no notice and their door locked with belongings inside. There must be an investigation immediately into C.T.R.S. and the social workers/directors allowing this to continue. Jessica Miles has been on a waitlist for the only housing that is safe and available to her and her child which is why she has been staying at C.T.R.S. Please consider allowing Jessica Miles back into C.T.R.S. immediately as her health and life is deteriorating from the stress of being locked out of her "tiny home". The West Los Angeles VA, also known as a Soldiers Home was deeded in 1888 to be a disabled social home to heal and get well with one of the best medical centers in the world. One that Jessica visits regularly to get care. Since the 1980's, private interest has built on the land at the expense of Veterans being denied much-needed services and suitable housing.

Especially in the wake of the recent ordinance that will criminalize more spaces for unhoused people. Jessica and her child need a safe space. We as a country need to prioritize those most in need. As someone who has bravely served our country and is a mother, it is indefensible that this person suffer in this way. As a citizen, we rely on those with power to give a voice to the powerless.

Please use your power to help demand Jessica Miles remain at C.T.R.S.

Sincerely,
Danielle Hengge

To whom it may concern:

Hi there, my name is Elizabeth Kahn and I am a resident of Los Angeles County and am very concerned about what is happening to Jessica Miles.

Jessica Miles is a disabled Army Veteran and a mother, has been illegally evicted from her home on August 4th with her belongings locked inside. She was living at C.T.R.S. which is at the West LA VA. She was given no written notice on when to leave.

Jessica is being retaliated against for raising issues and concerns for her and other women's safety at C.T.R.S. There must be an investigation immediately into C.T.R.S. and the social workers/directors allowing this to continue. Jessica Miles has been on a waitlist for the only housing that is safe and available to her and her child which is why she has been staying at C.T.R.S.  Subject: Demand that the West Los Angeles VA allow a disabled Black veteran Back into her home

Dear Office of the City Clerk ,

I just signed a petition saying: Demand that the West Los Angeles VA allow a disabled Black veteran Back into her home. Learn more about Jessica's story below:

On Thursday August 4th, the West Los Angeles VA kicked a disabled, Black veteran, Jessica Miles, out of her home. This was a same day eviction. She was given no written notice to leave and within hours her tiny home was locked and she was unable to go back in to get her personal belongings and feminine hygiene products.

Jessica has been discriminated against for nearly a year for raising concerns for female veteran safety. As a Black woman veteran who is registered as 100% disabled by the VA, she is one of the most vulnerable people in the program. She and her daughter have been stuck on a waitlist for the only housing that they qualify for.

She is the SECOND Black woman that has been evicted in this manner and what she is going through is similar to what many veterans, especially women, are facing at the West Los Angeles VA.

The West Los Angeles VA was deeded in 1888 to be a disabled soldiers home to heal and get well with one of the best medical centers in the country. But since the 1980s, private interests have built on the land at the expense of veterans being denied services and housing.

The West Los Angeles VA must allow Jessica Miles back into her home immediately.

Subject: ALLOW JESSICA MILES BACK INTO HER HOME AT THE WEST LA VA

Jessica Miles is a disabled Army Veteran and a mother, has been illegally evicted from her home on August 4th with her belongings locked inside. She was living at C.T.R.S. which is at the West LA VA. She was given no written notice on when to leave. Jessica is being retaliated against for raising issues and concerns for her and other women's safety at C.T.R.S. Here is some video footage: https://youtu.be/kUdO_daED7k

This is the second black woman that has been kicked out of C.T.R.S. in the same manner, of no notice and their door locked with belongings inside. There must be an investigation immediately into C.T.R.S. and the social workers/directors allowing this to continue.

Jessica Miles has been on a waitlist for the only housing that is safe and available to her and her child which is why she has been staying at C.T.R.S. Please consider allowing Jessica Miles back into C.T.R.S. immediately as her health and life is deteriorating from the stress of being locked out of her "tiny home".

The West Los Angeles VA, also known as a Soldiers Home was deeded in 1888 to be a disabled socialed home to heal and get well with one of the best medical centers in the world. One that Jessica visits regularly to heal and get well. Since the 1980's private interest has built on the land at the expense of Veterans being denied much needed services and suitable housing. Please investigate and look into this matter immediately.

Thank you for looking into this matter,

Sennett Devermont
