$75,000 REWARD NOTICE

The City of Los Angeles offers a reward payable at the discretion of the City Council to one or more persons in the sum or sums up to an aggregate maximum total sum of $75,000 for information leading to the identification and apprehension of the person or persons responsible for the DEATH OF AARON SHANNON, in the city of Los Angeles On October 31, 2010, at approximately 2:00 p.m., Aaron Shannon- 5 years old, Terrance Shannon- 27 years old, and William Shannon- 56 years old were in the backyard of 1007 E. 84th Street when unknown suspects walking eastbound through the alley fired numerous shots. All victims were struck by the gunfire and transported to the hospital. Aaron Shannon succumbed to his injuries on November 2, 2010; Terrance and William Shannon were treated at the hospital for the injuries and released. Detectives are continuing to investigate this crime but have not been able to identify any leads. The detectives believe a reward may compel member of the public to provide information on the persons responsible for this crime. The person or persons responsible for this crime represent an ongoing threat to the safety of the people of Los Angeles; therefore, it is appropriate for the City of Los Angeles to offer a reward for information leading to the identification, apprehension and conviction of the person or persons responsible for this crime. Unless withdrawn or paid by City Council action, this offer of reward shall terminate on, and have no effect after, August 3, 2026. The provisions of payment and all other considerations shall be governed by Chapter 12 of Division 19 of the LAAC Code, as amended by Ordinance Nos. 158157 and 166666. This offer shall be given upon the condition that claimants continued cooperation within the criminal justice system relative to this case and is not available to public officers or employees of the City, their families, persons in law enforcement or persons whose misconduct prompted this reward. If you have any information regarding this case, please call the Los Angeles Police Department at 1-877-LAPD-24-7, 24 hours. C. F. No. 10-0010-S42 2/3/26
