As an animal lover I would like to be thrilled that dogs and cats could be in homes rather than animal shelters. I would love to see all animals in loving homes with responsible owners. So initially I would have been in favor of the proposal to increase the amount of dogs/cats one could keep in their house.

BUT.....

now I realize the down side and the concerns that need to be considered with such a proposal. The end results are too irresponsible and dangerous.

It would be better to educate the public about adopting pets from shelters (rather than buy for example from breeders) and to support the shelters and reproduction prevention programs.

Thank you for your attention,

Sincerely,

Janice Bernstein

I do not want kennels or conditions like kennels next door to me or in my residential neighborhood.

Please dont increase the amount of dogs and cats that people can have in their residences. Many people are not doing a good job of handling the ones they already have. I also think redefining kennels will be harmful to neighborhood. it is okay for people to have a few pets but this is ridiculous. Thanks
