

I urge the Mayor NOT to sign the high-capacity magazine ban approved by the Council, and if necessary, at least permit retired law enforcement access to these magazines. Way more people die from car accidents than at the hands of criminals in Los Angeles. Maybe we should ban large-capacity gas tanks too? Is the problem cars or drivers? Don't blame the car, and don't blame the magazine.

Law abiding citizens aren't the problem, yet the Council is going after them, not the criminals. Criminals don't obey laws, so this will have no bearing on crime.

Respectfully,
