Comments for Public Posting: I support the motion that creates a pathway for tenant's rights against harassment. However, I would caution that the city shouldn't cut itself off from future revenue from the collection of fines. Under the proposed version of the ordinance lawyers fees aren't guaranteed. If lawyers aren't awarded legal fees, then the city and their attorney won't be either for the worst case offenders that the city would want to file a legal claim against. Legal fees should be baked into the proposed ordinance. Susan Hunter
