Item Number:

Brief Summary: The Northridge East Neighborhood Council supports Council File 14-1624 (Englander) which could expedite community improvement projects inasmuch as various City Departments would be instructed to prepare and present a report setting forth ways and means by which the City of Los Angeles may best serve community organizations seeking to undertake community improvement projects.

Additional Information: The report should include, but not be limited to, a discussion of the following key elements: establishing a single point of contact for inquires and technical assistance, identifying efficiencies and streamlining of all existing processes and permits, resolution of liability responsibilities which can hinder volunteer efforts, and outreach strategy for stakeholder input.
