Summary

At a regular meeting held on February 7, 2017, the PLUM Committee considered the inclusion of Parker Center in the list of Historic-Cultural Monuments. CHC Commissioners Gail Kennard and Richard Barron provided comments in support of the nomination. Staff from the Department of City Planning and the Bureau of Engineering provided background information on the property. After an opportunity for public comment and discussion on the item, the Committee recommended for Council not to approve the nomination of Parker Center in the list of Historic-Cultural Monuments. This matter is now submitted to the Council for consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

PLANNING AND LAND USE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE
