Dallas Fowler

Dallas Fowler is the Principal of Daltek Global Solutions, LLC a boutique business development consulting firm specializing in digital and print media communications. She founded the company in 2007 when she was still the Corporate Procurement Analyst and National Supplier Diversity Coordinator for US Bank. A member of their National Sales Team, Dallas was able to assist in bringing in an additional 2.4 million dollars in government and private client business. She also holds over 10 years of experience in the Supplier Diversity & Community Affairs arena and 13+ years of project management and event planning experience. Fowler left U.S. Bank to become the Principal of Daltek in 2009 and has since worked with companies like Fiji Water, Visa Black Card, VitaMuffins, Hayhouse, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and a host of small to midsize companies and individuals seeking public office.

Fowler also brings a wealth of experiences from working at Turner Construction Company, her first job out of college, where she served as a Labor Compliance Analyst and eventually their Community Affairs & Marketing Coordinator and Program Manager of their Youth Force 20/20 Initiative for the Southwest Region of the United States. While at Turner and U.S. Bank Dallas created strategic alliances with community partners, coordinated participation at various trade fairs and events, conducted research and data analyses of procurement info, managed the budgets and internal/external communications of her departments and also facilitated supplier meetings with procurement staff. In addition Ms. Fowler and sat on the U.S. Bank Employee Development Network board in Los Angeles Chairing their Diversity Expo for two consecutive years.

Founding her company Daltek Global in 2007, Ms. Fowler has managed and produced a wide range of events and viral marketing campaigns. Her skill sets and services have crossed a variety of industries from arts and entertainment to politics, hospitality, food & beverage and more.

The eldest of 4 siblings she is a master connector, mentor, and conduit for positive change. A natural public servant, Dallas is serving on the boards of the City of Los Angeles Commission On the Status of Women advising Mayor Eric Garcetti on issues impacting women and girls; Living Advantage, Inc. a non-profit serving foster youth in the Los Angeles area, the Museum of African American Art and the National Association of Commissions for Women.

A proud community advocate Dallas has worked actively on political campaigns since the age of 12. A graduate and past Alumnae President of the Los Angeles African American Women's Public Policy Institute housed at USC, she recently established HEIRSPAC, Helping Empowered Individuals Reach Success and hopes to provide a resource for individuals looking to run for office and raise awareness of issues impacting the environment, women, and minorities.

Fowler is a proud Los Angeles native and graduate of Florida A & M University receiving a Bachelor of Science in Business Management. Her passion for community involvement has garnered acknowledgment from Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, Speaker Emeritus Karen Bass, Senator Isadore Hall and Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa. She was recently honored by the National Action Network as Most Influential Leader Under 40. Dallas has traveled to Australia, Europe, Central America, Asia and the Caribbean.

Ms. Dallas Fowler

Dear Ms. Fowler:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the Police Permit Review Panel for the term ending June 30, 2021. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please call Claudia Luna in my Office at (213) 978-0621 to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign and return the enclosed Remuneration Form, Undated Separation Forms, Background Check Release and Information Sheet within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open and accountable City government possible.

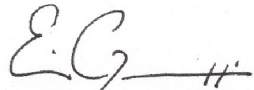

As part of the City Council confirmation process, you will need to meet with Herb J. Wesson, Jr., your Councilmember, and Councilmember Mitch Englander, the Chair of the Public Safety Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Public Safety Committee. Sometime thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall. Claudia Luna will assist you during the confirmation process if you have questions.

Ms. Dallas Fowler
