

MOTION

I HEREBY MOVE that the Council, pursuant to Charter Section 273(c), APPROVE a Settlement Agreement negotiated between the City of Los Angeles, its Board of Airport Commissioners and Los Angeles World Airports (LAWA), which currently own and operate Los Angeles International Airport, and the City of El Segundo, which provides that the City of El Segundo covenants not to bring legal or administrative action against the City of Los Angeles, federal government, State or other local government regarding the review and approval of the Los Angeles International Airport Landside Access Modernization Plan (LAMP), or any such action that could delay, prevent, impede, alter or affect in any way the approval or implementation of the LAMP or any project with the LAMP. The City of Los Angeles would commit to: (1) perform rehabilitation and preventive maintenance work on certain portions of Imperial Highway West located within the City of Los Angeles generally between Vista Del Mar and Aviation with a cost not to exceed $1,901,525; (2) conduct a street parking study with a budgeted amount of up to $50,000; and, (3) pay El Segundo $20,000 for consultant and technical information associated with that study, SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL OF THE MAYOR.
