Summary: The Echo Park Neighborhood Council supports the proposed Tenants' Right to Counsel program.

Many tenants who have been served an eviction notice to terminate tenancy have limited access to legal representation. This program serves to provide apartment renters faced with eviction or landlord harassment with legal assistance they might not otherwise be able to obtain. The proposal calls for City staff to develop recommendations on developing the Tenants Right to Counsel program including prospective costs and funding sources and report back to the City Council within 120 days.

A Right to Counsel law was approved by voters in San Francisco in June 2018, and New York City adopted such a law in 2017. The City of Los Angeles should act to provide the right to counsel as soon as possible for the 60% plus of its residents who are renters.

Tenants' Right to Counsel Ordinance/Program

July 24, 2018

CERTIFIED NEIGHBORHOOD
COUNCIL
APRIL 16, 2002

To: Honorable City Council, Los Angeles City Hall, 200 N. Spring Street, room 395, Los Angeles, CA 90012 c/o Office of the City Clerk.

The Echo Park Neighborhood Council (EPNC) is requesting that the aforesaid CIS be attached to Council File No. 18-0610. On July 24, 2018, with a quorum of 17, the EPNC Board of Governors held a Brown Act-noticed meeting and with a vote of 17 yeas, 0 nays, and 0 abstentions, the EPNC voted to submit this CIS.

The Echo Park Neighborhood Council supports the Tenants' Right to Counsel program proposed by Councilmember Paul Koretz, and seconded by Councilmember Herb Wesson.

With the 2018 Los Angeles Homeless Count showing nearly 10,000 people experiencing homelessness for the first time, it can be reasonably concluded that the combined impacts of evictions and rental housing unaffordability are contributing substantially to the homelessness crisis in Los Angeles. Many of those receiving eviction notices were among the approximately 30,000 L.A. renters who received Unlawful Detainers (final evictions notices) in 2017.
