RE: Council File 19-0229-S2

Dear Councilmembers,

We, as leaders of CIR-SEIU urge you to vote in favor of the Fast Food Fair Work Ordinance and support the more than 50,000 fast food cooks and cashiers in Los Angeles. About 90 percent of fast food workers are people of color, and nearly 70 percent are women. Roughly one in three are immigrants.

These workers face erratic and unpredictable work schedules, rampant violations of worker protection laws and a lack of paid vacations. They have faced constant threats of firings, hours cuts, and even employers' threats to call ICE. The current menace of mass deportation and heavily publicized raids across the country contribute to a culture of fear, further deterring fast food workers from exercising their rights.

The Fast Food Fair Work Ordinance offers solutions to these abuses that benefit fast food workers and responsible employers. It would require an annual full day in-person Know Your Rights training by an independent, trusted third party; offers protection from constantly changing schedules; and requires paid time off so workers can attend the training and have time with family and take care of personal needs.

According to a survey of fast food workers, 88 percent of those surveyed need resources to protect themselves from wage theft, sexual harassment and dangerous working conditions.

As physicians, we stand in solidarity with our fellow essential workers. We firmly believe that the Fast Food Fair Work Law can be a transformative force. By guaranteeing workers training on workplace rights, predictable scheduling and paid personal time off, Los Angeles can lead in empowering fast food workers and improving their lives, alongside their families, customers, and communities.

We strongly urge you to advance this critical motion without any further studies, affirming LA's commitment to fair treatment, security, and dignity for fast food workers, thereby creating a positive impact on the lives of thousands of workers and the broader community.

Sincerely,

Susan Naranjo
