Comments for Public Posting: When LA passed the Fair Work Week Ordinance, this was one of the best things for workers rights and protecting workers and the income. However, it only applies to retail, not restaurant/bar/food service. As I am sure you are aware, the challenges with ever-changing schedules present in retail, are honestly about the same as food service. I am asking for an update to the LA Fair Work Week Ordinance to cover food service (restaurants, fast food/quick serve and bars, etc.), in addition to retail. I've often seen schedules changed barely over 4 hours before a shift, with being assigned shifts a couple days before, or when done a week ahead, multiple changes occurring days after. This cannot be allowed to continue by employers.
