Comments for Public Posting: I am writing in support of this item. My name is Tiana Valdez and I've worked for HMS HOST and JACKMONT in LAX as a food server for 9 months and 4 years. I am a proud member of UNITEHERE Local 11. I am laid off with my co-workers because of the pandemic. I need my health insurance extended because not only do i depend on the insurance but my children do as well my son has asthma and with the allergy season right now we both have to be careful his asthma gets triggered and my sinuses act up which cause me to get upper respiratory infection and really bad ear infections my daughter also needs the insurance so she can continueto get her medication every other month and to continueseeing her doctor as well. Thank you for your support.

Comments for Public Posting: I am in need of health insurance due to me having hypertension and I am anemic. I need health insurance to keep me up to date on my labs (blood) to check my organs and health. My 15 yr old son who is under my insurance has Asthma, he contracted it due to having RSV at a young age. Health care coverage is needed during these hard time. Especially with my household health conditions. Laid off both jobs, LAX and a soccer stadium in Carson. Please help us keep it for our families.
