Comments for Public Posting: We know climate change is here and the worst effects are coming soon. Please reconsider budgeting for protecting the positions and services that can prepare us IN ADVANCE for the inevitable. I applaud the city's commitment to pLAn Green New Deal. Now is the right time to back that commitment, in spite of reduced revenues, not to cut support. We have seen what happens when government foolishly pulls funding from preparedness programs only to be caught unprepared as in the national disaster in handling the pandemic. Let's use what we KNOW and not make the same mistake. Thank you.
