Re: Los Angeles City Council Redistricting Commission

Dear Ms. Wolcott:

With this letter, I am officially naming Mr. Denis Cagna as the Council District 2 appointee to the Los Angeles City Council Redistricting Commission.

In making my selection, I sought an appointee who (i) has a proven record of service to the people of Los Angeles, and especially those who have been underserved or underrepresented, and (ii) is a person of unquestionable character who has no bias or personal agenda that might inappropriately influence the redistricting process. Mr. Cagna is exactly such a person.

Mr. Cagna has always been a passionate supporter of social justice and civil rights causes, especially involving the LGBT community. For example, for many years he has served on the Board of Directors of the Alliance for Housing and Healing. In that role he has been instrumental in advancing the organization's mission of providing essential housing and supportive services to people living in poverty with HIV/AIDS or other health challenges.

When Mr. Cagna is not serving Angelinos in need, he serves as executive director at Ernst & Young in its consulting practice. He has spent 25 years in process transformation, large-scale project management, and financial management.

Mr. Cagna's extraordinary commitment to the City of Los Angeles, his professional experience as a project manager, and his personal passion for and knowledge of the history of Los Angeles, make him an ideal candidate for the commission. It is my honor to appoint Mr. Cagna, whom I have no doubt will serve with independence, fairness, and integrity for the best interests of all of the communities of Los Angeles.

Very truly yours,

PAUL KREKORIAN
Councilmember, Second Council District
