

Richard Alatorre

Employment History

Richard Alatorre & Company

2000- Present

- Political consulting company that manages a number of infrastructure and public service projects.

Unemployment Appeals Board

1999

- Administrative judge presiding over unresolved unemployment claim cases.

Los Angeles City Council, Councilmember, 14th District

1985-1999

- Served as Chairman of Redistricting Committee, Federally mandated by the U.S. Justice Department. Was immediately appointed to manage a Federal lawsuit against the city
- Chair, Public Safety Committee
- Chair, Budget and Finance Committee
- Appointed by Mayor Tom Bradley to the Los Angeles Regional Transportation Commission, the forerunner to the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTA), where I was elected the first Chairman of the MTA and championed the passage of the Gold Line and led the successful approval of the Eastern Extension of the light rail into East Los Angeles.

California State Assembly, District 55

1972-1985

- Chair, Select Committee on Farm Labor Violence
- Chair, Human Services Committee
- Chair, 1980 Elections and Reapportionment Committee
- Founder and Chair of the Chicano Caucus for the California State Legislature
- Chair, Prison Reform Committee

Education

University of Southern California

1971

- Masters of Public Administration

California State University, Los Angeles

1965

- BA in Political Science