Comments for Public Posting: I support the police 100%. I have worked with them as a volunteer for 2e years and know they are hard-working dedicated servants who wish is to keep the people of the city safe, regardless of the dangers to themselves. Like other professionals, they are policemen 24/7 and should be applauded rather than castigated. Every profession has a few bad apples but you cannot label the entire police force by a few examples. Don't make their job harder. Support our hard-working police. My file number is 20-0692

Comments for Public Posting: City and County officials indulge calls to defund the police department to avoid more difficult scrutiny. Before dramatic cuts can be made to the LAPD the existing Social Services infrastructure needs to be reimaged. The Times headlines are typically dominated by articles showcasing continued failures in treating our homeless population (consecutive years of double-digit increase), failing to protect our vulnerable children in our foster care and education systems, failure to provide access to proper and consistent mental health and City Hall corruption. The LAPD is a department that meets or exceeds many of the change demands made of law enforcement over the last month. Los Angeles City Council and the mayor's office needs to be held accountable for the worsening conditions in the city. They are using LAPD as a scapegoat to distract the real issues. Once our social service performs properly by lowering the number of the unhoused, actually protecting children and is the gold standard for mental health, then reductions to the police budget should be considered. Doing so now will not protect Angelinos and put many more at risk. Without an honest conversation about our poorly-managed city, true reform will never come.

Comments for Public Posting: Defunding the Police will cause a lot of harm to older residents and those who are unable to help themselves. To take a political stance instead of a business operations stance will cause long damage and short term harm. What needs to be corrected is the promotion of senior level Officers and better hiring practices of officers who truly care about community.

Our city and county is only safe when people comply with law and order. Calling 9-1-1 means getting lifesaving help and an expectation that police will arrive. Our society will collapse without sufficient police presence! I implore you to stand strong and not defund!!! Our lives depend on it!

Comments for Public Posting: Defunding the Police is the most preposterous and ludicrous thing I have ever heard. If you want me to believe that that there is systemic racism in the United States (where we elected a black president despite the black population only being 13%) as well as all police officers are racist murderers (due to the actions of a few) then let me give you examples and make you aware of what else I am then allowed to believe. 1.) That every Muslim in the world is a terrorist that drives planes into buildings and wants to kill and murder all Americans. 2.) Every Italian is a gun toting mafia assassin. 3.) Every teacher is a pedophile that sleeps with their underage students. See how that works? A situation (George Floyd) that just about every person in the country agreed was a horrible tragedy was allowed to be escalated not to protests like the liberal media would like you to believe, but riots and looting and attacks on innocent people. My 80-year-old mother is now afraid to go out to a store or a walk because she is afraid, that she may be sucker punched like the 92-year-old woman for no reason at all. Law-abiding citizens want to DEFEND THE POLICE and honestly, I believe there is a sinister agenda for those who want to DEFUND. The stupidity of a Defunding the Police protest was caught on camera where a man was holding a sign to Defund while watching two others attack and brutally beat another. The man holding the Defund sign actually said, "Where are the Police when you need them?" Am I the only one that sees the irony in that? We need to not only NOT DEFUND but, in these times, to increase the police presence and PAY them what they deserve. Where most people runaway from danger our officers run TOWARDS it to help you. Let that sink in if you Defunders are every victimized. Don't let this ridiculous movement supersede intelligence and rationality.

Subject: In reference to council file 20-0692. Blue Roof Studios is supporting CANNDU motion to raise the neighborhood council budget to $100,000 per year.

Dear Council member Curren D. Price Jr.,

My name is Galia Linn, I own and run a non-profit art hub named Blue Roof Studios in council district 9. I believe, and I hope you'll agree, that how we spend our money reflects our values and who we are as individuals and a community.

I am writing this letter in support of CANNDU's request to raise the neighborhood council budget to $100,000 per year.

Blue roof Studios is a relatively new organization to the district. Since moving to the neighborhood four years ago we have attended multiple CANNDU meetings. We found the organization and it's members to be informative, welcoming and responsive to the community needs. Over the years we have collaborated on several arts related projects that drew thousands of people from the community and Los Angeles to events such as the Blue Roof Studios Arts Festival. With the information and support CANNDU provided we were able to bring more funding to our events and hire local vendors to provide services thus insuring a successful event for the enjoyment of our community. We are looking to continue our collaboration in the years to come.

CANNDU is providing essential services the community. Its board members are from the community; they know what is needed to support it. As the City of Los Angeles considering its budget I hope that you consider funding neighborhood councils.

Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to express my strong opinion that it is not in the city's best interest to defund the police department. It would be a catastrophic mistake to do so, resulting in an upswing in crime, more deaths, and a complete lack of law and order throughout our city. Outside of the police department, there is no other trained group of individuals who are ready and willing to respond to the particular issues LAPD and all police departments are capable of doing. Defunding is not the answer, and deciding to do so would be a mistake so grave that our city may never recover.

Comments for Public Posting: I request that the city council not defund the LAPD. To cover our great City, and to deal with all of our citizens timely _ with domestic violence, rapes, accidents, threats, gang violence, potential terrorism, and so many other issues, the LAPD needs their forces increased not decreased. To think that someone reporting a serious crime such as domestic violence, rape, or child abduction issues, would have to wait 20, 30 or 60+ minutes for a response, is absolutely not acceptable. Although there may be a few officers who should receive retraining, suspension, or possibly even be removed, 99% of our men and women in blue are outstanding individuals who's first concern is for us, the General Public. Please do not allow a select few protesters to speak for the majority of the citizens who value the LAPD. My family wants a safe and secure City, not one that is underfunded and under secure.

Comments for Public Posting: The police are an essential component of our city. Without them, people who need help from a dangerous situation will be left defenseless. Knowing the police response will be slow to nonexistent, criminal activity will increase. Community organizations are not equipped to deal with violent criminals, especially with the early release from prison of many criminals and $0 bail policy. This is all going to lead to an escalation of crimes and a movement of people out of the city and state. Please do not cave to special-interest groups that make up a violent, loud minority. Do not let yourself be threatened, Intimidated, or held hostage by these groups. Think of the majority of your constituents and do not defund the police.

Comments for Public Posting: Please DO NOT defund the police! Both of my parents were born in Africa. They immigrated to the US for a much better life, which we have been lucky enough to achieve. The police are essential. The few public interactions with bad police officers are the only ones that are shown on the media. Yes, there may be some bad individuals (as in all groups), and yes the bad police individuals need to be removed and prosecuted if their actions were criminal. However, myself, friends, and the community have had so many interactions with LAPD that were both pleasant and supportive of a safe and racially equal community. I've been the victim of hate crimes too with Nazi symbols and hate speech spray painted on my house and car as well as religiously motivated vandalism. Who did we call? The police. They came and were supportive, understanding, and thoroughly investigated the incident and brought the criminals to justice quickly! My family has had a home invasion/robbery as well. We were lucky to survive with no injuries and only some stolen property. Had the police not responded within 5 minutes, the situation could have easily been deadly for us. So many instances the police has protected us. We want more police, not less!

The police are a pariah that will just devour funding until the city stands up and realize we can not police away social problems we need to invest in our communities and people. It's hard work but will lead to a solution, policing will only lead to more violence and oppression. Do your no job. Represent the people of Los Angeles and not the police unions. Far more than this needs to be removed from the LAPD budget this is a minimal first step. #DefundThePolice #PeoplesBudgetLA.

Comments for Public Posting: Defunding the police is so outrageous.. our Men an Woman serve our community with dignity and respect. We do not want to see LA become Seattle or New York. Our LAPD fight very hard to keep crime down.. we the people want our law enforcement hear , not defunded! We need law enforcement more now than ever. There are other things that can be defunded but NOT LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.. WE THE PEOPLE DEMAND THAT THIS STOPS NOW..

Comments for Public Posting: I would ask the police union and those who oppose the less than 10% budget cut to the LAPD a few questions: 1 How many officers live in the city? 2 How many support businesses in the city? 3 How many of their children go to school in the city? 4 How much are we the taxpaying citizens of LA going spend and will spend for despicable acts committed by LAPD, I will list a few? Leaving people on busses with no water of bathrooms. Officers lying and placing people of color in gang files. Beating a man on the street for trespassing. High ranking officers calling black officers “boy”. Molesting a dead woman. That just this year, that I know of, I sure there is more. My wife I, both people of color. We live and raised our family here, and are homeowners in the city for a combining time of over 90 years. We have seen first-hand the economic disparity in the community of color and it’s time for a change. I know most officers are hardworking and do a good job. If the LAPD was so concerned about the community they would live here and make the same sacrifices that we as residence do. It’s time for them to act like the PUBLIC SERVANTS they are and work with this less than 10% budget cut.

Comments for Public Posting: HOMEOWNERS OF ENCINO "Fighting to keep the American Dream of Home Ownership alive"
<https://homeownersofencino.wordpress.com/> ELIOT COHEN – President #542 ENCINO COMMUNITY UPDATE Is defunding the Police a good idea? I never wanted to write this column. I know it is controversial and goes against today's orthodox group think. It may even make some of our long-time donors mad. This column will not be part of the silent majority. Will not promote or stay silent about nonsensical ideas. We will not take a knee to popular delusions or the madness of the crowd. Is defunding the Police a good idea? No! If anything, we need to give the Police more money, especially for training. The Police have millions of interactions with citizens a year. 99+% of these are unremarkable. A few egregious, heinous, and murderous examples of police misconduct and murder explode with the force of a hydrogen bomb on the scene and capture everyone's emotions and minds rightly. The way Police Departments train recruits is wholly inadequate. Candidates do the most ridiculously minuscule amount of training for what their jobs are. The military, for instance, train for 12 months or more to go on a mission. In as little as six months, you can become an LAPD officer. Being a Police Officer is one of the hardest jobs. Now more than ever, it might be the hardest job. I believe that when "we" are calling for defunding the Police, "we" are asking how we can make a better police force and better police officers? HOME believes Police officers should be training 20% of the time, four days on patrol 1-day training. Policing in the era of BLM and George Floyd must include instruction in de-escalation, scenario drills. Training the Police does not need to be expensive. We need to teach the Police how to talk to people. How to find out what's wrong? How to get compliance. When to put someone in an Uber and send them home, or when to call the paramedics instead of handcuffs and arrests. Officers need to practice how to respond if the subjects do not cooperate. You learn what to do if they start something drastic you know the best tactics to use. Officers need this training because these confrontations often lead to emotional decisions. Emotional decisions 100% of the time are wrong decisions. The Police need to know how to detach from the situation and time permitting call in a new team that can more calmly deal with the situation before it escalates into a use of force situation. The more they practice, the better they get at being able to de-escalate a real-life situation. If Cops practice, they will learn how to detach mentally, to not take the circumstances personally, and not to make emotional decisions. Only through extensive training can this come true. The Police need to go over all these scenarios repeatedly, whether it is domestic abuse, hostile and rude drivers, someone acting crazy on drugs, somebody waving a gun around, and 1000 other encounters that could turn ugly. Practice makes better Police. Some proposals that need implementation are: ending broken window policing, eliminating stops and frisks, stop racial profiling. Rewrite the rules of engagement with a suspect, and retraining police officers to treat all people with respect. Let's get back to real Community-Based Policing, where the Police earnestly interact with the community. Let's have more ride alongs for both Community Leaders and kids in the Neighborhood. Another form of Community-Based Policing is what I call Accountability Night. Where citizens at the precinct level, complaints are heard by the Command and Control structure in an open forum. Therefore, the public can make sure there is accountability. Another idea would be to purge the bad cops now that have a record of abuse. If these suggestions do not create a more humane police force, then let's end the privilege of qualified immunity and have police officers, and their leaders held accountable for their actions. If somebody is breaking into your house, are you going to call a social worker? When the Police are defunded, only the rich will have Police and Security. Eliot Cohen – President

Comments for Public Posting: We aspire to have a safer Los Angeles, but a safer city simply cannot be achieved without a police department. The Los Angeles Police Department has evolved since its inception 1869, and the changes in the department have been for the benefit of the department and the community that it serves. The LAPD will continue to evolve as it strives to become a better police agency, but practical and extensive change simply cannot happen with a reduced budget. The Black Lives Matter - LA organization wants to cut the LAPD budget down to just 10%. A 90% reduced budget is completely impractical for a city the size of Los Angeles; this is a regressive budget, not a progressive budget. And what is the 90% of the budget supposed to be used for, specifically? BLM-LA does not provide any specific answers or solutions. Why would any reasonable person place their trust in such an organization? Please do not defund the LAPD. We need to DEFEND the LAPD.

Comments for Public Posting: Do not defund the police. Citizens deserve to be protected. I am seeing more and more people with out gun experience arm themselves and conceal carry because they are afraid the police won't be there when they need. We have inmates being released due to Covid who go out and start committing crimes immediately. Now more than ever people feel unsafe. Do you want inexperienced people taking matters into their own hands. Or open up conceal carry so that law abiding citizens with firearms experience can protect others if you insist on taking the police away. But who will be there for you council in your time if need?

Comments for Public Posting: To the City Council Members, I am responding to item #1 on the Agenda. I absolutely DO NOT WANT items J or B to be passed causing our city to lose HUNDREDS of officers! Just the other day an individual, obviously on drugs ,stood in front of my Church with a bow and arrow randomly shooting arrows at the Church and surrounding areas and he also tried to start a fire. Had the police not come, real damage to property or an individual could have occurred. We need our Police officers. We have too few as it is in such a large city as Los Angeles. To take any funds at all away from this organization is going in the wrong direction.

Comments for Public Posting: This is not the solution! I do not support defunding LAPD in any way. Races equality can only be achieved by making improvements of basic understanding and daily communication of all of us and from the bottom up. Police are not the cause and therefore, the solution is not to penalize or undercut the department. Our leadership should focus on how to improve our community on racial issues, there's no quick fix on this matter and to defund LAPD is definitely not the starting point.

Comments for Public Posting: As a citizen of Los Angeles and having watched the LAPD and Sheriffs maintain order over the past 40+ years, I strongly disapprove of defunding the police. If this ridiculous demand is met, I am certain we will see a rise in crime and many citizens will feel unsafe venturing to many cities within the County for cultural events, shopping, recreation, enjoying the restaurants, or sporting events. Please consider reason and logic before making such a rash decision at this time for political reasons.

Comments for Public Posting: I am responding to item 1 on the Los Angeles Police Department Budget Cut / Disadvantaged and Communities of Color Reinvestment agenda. I cannot, in good conscience, support items B and J, as these items will result in the loss of hundreds of police officers. The residents and commuters of Los Angeles desire a safe city to live and work in. A drastically reduced police force will lead to an alarming rise in violent crime and property crime. Many city residents are already struggling due to the financial hardships of COVID-19. Having to worry about rising crime is only going to make life harder for these residents. I understand that the L.A. City Council is under enormous pressure from extreme leftist activists from Black Lives Matter - LA (the organization) to adopt a so-called "People's Budget," but this proposal is terribly unspecific in details and completely lacks factual evidence that it will improve the lives of anyone in Los Angeles. My concern is that the "People's Budget" will significantly increase the bank accounts of special interest groups associated with Black Lives Matter - LA at the expense of innocent, law-abiding citizens in the city of Los Angeles. People's lives and livelihoods are at stake - we simply cannot afford to let the extremists dismantle the very organization responsible for public safety in this great city. Please do the right thing and defend the LAPD, not defund!

Comments for Public Posting: In response to item 1 on the agenda. Sections J and B should not be passed. Reducing the number of officers is going to negatively impact communities across the city. When response time slows it reflects negatively on the city and LAPD and puts officers and citizens at risk. Specifically in active shooter situations response time can mean the difference between life and death.

Comments for Public Posting: Not only do I strongly disagree with any cutting of the police budget, I think more funds should be allocated to law enforcement. One for more police officers and two for more training, more body cameras, more car cameras. This will effectively protect both the public and the police. As long as the policy is to allow felons out of prison early, or only issuing tickets to criminals, the rest of us need additional protection, not less. All of the current policies and the proposed cut in police funding will only cause more crime, more victims. This is just common sense. No defunding of LAPD! Janet Talmy

Comments for Public Posting: I do not support defunding LAPD in any way. In order to have a safe place to live, we need police to protect us and keep peace. Just look at America, will you defund the military? Please think about yourself, if you see a CHP behind you, will you still drive 80mph? Please do not defund the police. There are other ways to work things out.
