Horses are not vehicles and should not be exploited by LAPD. There is mono reason for cops to be on horseback

Comments for Public Posting: Oppose. Why does the LAPD need to be on horseback?
Absolutely not. We need to defund the police, not give them more resources to inflict harm.

Comments for Public Posting: This is a comment for Item 23, 29, 30, and 31 on the Agenda for 7/1/20. I am relatively new to city politics but, like many people, I will never not pay attention again. I am confused why the LAPD is the recipient of so many donations and why you, the council, are so concerned about their budgets & funding when they are clearly able to gather funds from other -- often unclear -- sources. This is why we need to go after the funding we CAN control and divert it to other resources. The police have means of retaining their power & influence, whilst other and arguably more important city departments seem to be flailing. I understand other departments do work that is often supported by a network of nonprofits. But this work SHOULD be the job of publicly accountable and ran organizations, subject to the will of the voters/people. Can and do the Departments of Housing, Community Development, Aging, Workforce Development, etc receive as many, if any, donations as the LAPD? When I Google "LAPD Donations" the first thing that comes up is a link to donation to the LA Police Foundation. When I Google donating to any other department, it's unclear if it is even possible. Why is the LAPD even allowed to solicit donations in the first place, when the possibility of corruption is so apparent? When they are the ones tasked with supposedly (as if) objectively upholding the law? Why do we allow this with so little transparency?

Comments for Public Posting: Please reject this in-kind donation of a horse trailer - They should not receive any more money, and they definitely should not be able to receive donations from outside groups. It is shady and inappropriate - and we are asking you to do the opposite! Please listen to your constituents that have called in for the past several weeks asking you to defund the police.
