SEC. 98.0105. INSPECTORS.

(2) If such property is unoccupied, he shall first make a reasonable effort to locate the owner or other person having charge or control of the property, explain his reasons for the inspection, and request consent to enter; and

(3) If consent to enter is refused or cannot be obtained, whether a property is occupied or unoccupied, the Superintendent of Building or his authorized representative shall obtain an inspection warrant.

(b) Exigent Circumstances. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Superintendent of Building or his authorized representative has reasonable cause to believe that the building or premises is so hazardous, unsafe or dangerous as to require immediate inspection to safeguard the public health or safety, he shall have the right to immediately enter and inspect such property, and may use any reasonable means required to effect such entry and make such inspection, whether such property is occupied or unoccupied and whether or not permission to inspect has been obtained.
