Comments for Public Posting: My name is Lane McFaddin and I am writing in support of the City Zoning Code Update. As we all know, housing is the number one way to alleviate the homelessness crisis in this city. I am lucky enough to have secure housing, but I know many people who do not have housing or who are not secure in their housing. I have friends who have had to leave LA due to the expense of their housing and lack of affordable options. As the council considers this and all other zoning and land-use decisions, I urge you to do so with the goal of maximizing public and affordable housing that will ensure all residents of LA are secure and safe with a roof over their head. Thank you.
