

Communication from Public

Name: Marian Dodge

Date Submitted: 09/20/2022 08:58 AM

Council File No: 20-1536

Comments for Public Posting: Here's an alternative to the STAP. This is a bus shelter in Porterville CA. The temperature that day was 102, as is not uncommon in the Central Valley. The shelter has 2 benches, no advertising of any kind. There is a small solar panel on the roof to provide lighting at night. If Porterville can provide shade without selling its soul, why can't Los Angeles?