Comments for Public Posting: I write (again) in strong support of the proposed rodeo ordinance. For the majority of these exploited and abused creatures--horses and bulls included--the rodeo arena is merely a detour en route to the slaughterhouse. Most of rodeo has nothing to do with either agriculture or life on a working ranch--it's mostly macho hype, and exercise in DOMINATION. Rodeo has had its brutal day and now--like those Confederate statues--belongs in the dustbin of history. The United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales) outlawed all of rodeo back in 1934. Can the U.S. be far behind? And consider the following excerpt from a treasured letter that Cesar Chavez (United Farm Workers) sent to me on 12/26/90: "Kindness and compassion towards all living things is a mark of a civilized society. Conversely, cruelty, whether it is directed against human beings or against animals, is not the exclusive province of any one culture or community of people. Racism, economic deprival, dog fighting and cock fighting, bull fighting and RODEOS (emphasis added) are cut from the same fabric: violence. Only when we have become nonviolent towards all life will we have learned to live well ourselves." We're counting on the City Council to do the right thing, and unanimously approve this humane proposal. Seems the very least we owe the animals, yes?

Comments for Public Posting: The "tools" used on rodeo animals to "perform better" are both archaic and barbaric. When you take children to clap with glee when these poor creatures "perform" is propegating animal cruelty and inhumane treatment for future generations. Shame on you! What happened to teaching our future generations the importance of compassion and humane concern for our furry and feathered creatures? If humans could just observe how animals treat each other and their babies, the human race could surely learn a lot!

Comments for Public Posting: Just because the most ignorant and primitive of our species has done something for decades does not mean it has to continue as most of us evolve into higher consciousness. Rodeos, as well as other "entertainments" using, abusing and killing animals, is a blood "sport" and needs to be swept into the dust bin of history where it belongs. When we make it illegal for those who profit from rodeos to use their instruments of torture and submission, the cruel, barbaric pastime will disappear. There is no excuse for today's society to continue with this horrendous, severe animal abuse. Most people want to see it go away, just like the animal circuses, etc. I urge you to please vote to ban all the hurtful devices used on innocent animals in order to force them to perform in rodeos

Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to voice my strong support for the L.A. rodeo device ban. Animal cruelty masquerading as "family entertainment" is unjustifiable and unacceptable in modern society. Electric prods and shocking devices, spurs and rowels, and flank or bucking straps are nothing more than tortures devices to force the victims of this bloodsport to appear to be bucking wild animals when in reality such instruments of misery are used because the animals are naturally gentle and would not normally act in such a way unless trying to escape pain. Truthfully, the horses and bulls exploited in rodeos are frightened and suffer greatly at the hands of the cowboys trying to appear "brave" for the audience, which include scores of impressionable children. Not only are myriad animals injured during such spectacles but many die outright or are killed later as a result of broken limbs and necks. How can such atrocities be deemed "entertainment"? I call on you to vote in favor of the rodeo device ban and send a strong message that such violence against innocent, defenseless, sentient animals will not be tolerated in L.A. Thank you for your consideration of my comments on this most urgent animal welfare issue.

Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves (Abraham Lincoln) Humans who treat animals like garbage and treat them like crap don't deserve the light of day themselves even don't deserve to be called human. Humans call themselves mom and dad to animals and then dump / mistreat/ abuse them do humans dump their kids when they are fed up with them too?
