Comments for Public Posting: I support the Rodeo Device Ban. Capturing and slamming an animal to the ground, especially a baby animal such as a calf, then tying its legs together, is inhumane and cruel. Fortunately, we humans in the 21st century are finally coming to this realization. Please allow the ban, which the majority of citizens support, come to fruition. Show the world that Los Angeles is a humane city!

Comments for Public Posting: Around the world we equate the state of California with the highest modernity and progress of the human kind, but Rodeos are to be linked to a barbaric age an age where our researchers didn't have the instruments to know that animals have the same electric cells that start the heart as we do, and the same neurotransmitters. California should rise to the peak of modernity in this area too

Comments for Public Posting: I wholeheartedly support the Rodeo Device Ban. There is no excuse for animal abuse in Los Angeles in the 21st century and f lies in the face of compassion and caring for all creatures, not just our own species. Animal abuse for the sake of "entertainment" is abhorrant and barbaric and needs to be consigned to the annals of history as was gladiator fighting and slavery.
