Comments for Public Posting: SAVE RODEO! Look at the number of jobs in the industry. Not to mention the way of life and history you are wanting to throw away. We need more rodeo in America! Bring it back!

Comments for Public Posting: In my community Rodeo and AG activities are important enough to be part of the school curriculum. My belief is that more at-risk youth who can be exposed to Rodeo, animal care and the keeping of animals can learn valuable life lessons. Don't let animal "rights" groups have the final word. From childhood I wanted to hangout at the local horse stable, now at 79+ I'm so grateful for my life experiences with animals. I still own a horse. Keep Rodeo Alive.

Comments for Public Posting: I've never Parton the sport of Rodeo, but have been involved in it my entire life. The pro rodeo livestock are some of the most cared for and pampered livestock in the world. If you want to compare to circus animal who are continually cage fore there whole life! Rodeo livestock normally are only out for 8 seconds very few times a year, the rest of the time they lead a life of leisure

Comments for Public Posting: I'm writing to urge you to keep rodeo as it is a sport derived from an industry which creates another industry. It is a culture and a lifestyle. The animals that are used in rodeos are often considered to be family to their owners.

Comments for Public Posting: People in rodeo care for their animals better than anyone. It is a way of life and the way we still do things on the ranches today. Rodeo should be celebrated and supported! Anyone who does not KNOW rodeo and it's American history of how it came about, has no right to try to shut it down.

Comments for Public Posting: The sport of rodeo honors our western heritage. This is a part of American history and we have much to learn from it. Farmers and ranchers are the best stewards of our land and animals. As we move to a more sustainable lifestyle and agriculture, we must support each other and be inclusive. Rodeo allows a venue for history to come alive for future generations to learn and appreciate.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo should not be banned. Because of rodeo, horses, bulls, calves and steers have better lives because they are loved by their owners. They are fed and cared for very well. Rodeo is a long-time American tradition. Please do not ban rodeo.

Comments for Public Posting: DO NOT BAN RODEO. Nobody cares for the animals involved more than the competitors and rodeo producers themselves. Rodeo has rules and regulations in place that protect the animals. These animals are treated better than most Americans.
